M. Snider, 2012-08-21 She used the time on the flight to read the words of the past quests and was touched as they echoed her own feelings she read the familiar script of her grandmother I did not want to come as it was too close to losing the one person that understood who and what I was She demanded that I come she said that it was a journey into the soul of healing I only wanted to curl up in her chair with her blanket and cry Because it was her last wish of me I came for her and learned who I really was I found the strength to stand for myself and realized that people can only have the power over another if it is allowed I will not let anyone take control over my life and my dreams for I will be the one who says what I do and with whom I choose In my walk through the glade I found peace and harmony I found the inner strength to be the person I want to be not subservient to others I had to quit my position in the firm to come and I am glad that I did as now I know how to relax and to be in the moment and see the birds and nature and hear God in the trees and on the breeze For this alone it was fortunate that I ventured on this quest and I just hope the rest of my stay is a pleasant I will return to the glade again on the morning and every morning until it is time to depart I will do this for many reasons as this place is a place that time has forgotten and is pure untouched by modern influences The healing power of peace to the soul and spirit is one that can only be felt and not described She is here The cousin who worked at the Tower as a maid responded He is here Soon the town was buzzing and a call to the Tower confirmed that the brunch was being arranged to welcome the end of the legend for the following day
