Psychoanalysis and Gender

Rosalind Minsky, 2014-04-23 What is object relations theory and what does it have to do with literary studies How can Freud's phallogocentric theories be applied by feminist critics In Psychoanalysis and Gender An Introductory Reader Rosalind Minsky answers these questions and more offering students a clear straightforward overview without ever losing them in jargon In the first section Minsky outlines the fundamentals of the theory introducing the key thinkers and providing clear commentary In the second section the theory is demonstrated by an anthology of seminal essays which includes Femininity by Sigmund Freud Envy and Gratitude by Melanie Klein An extract from Transitional Objects and Transitional Phenomena by Donald Winnicott The Meaning of the Phallus by Jacques Lacan An extract from Women's Time by Julia Kristeva An extract from Speculum of the Other Woman by Luce Irigaray The

Couple Eric Smadja, 2016-08-12 The Couple A pluridisciplinary story asks two questions and endeavours to answer them

What is the couple And what story are we talking about Eric Smadja presents his view of the couple as a composite sexual bodily socio cultural and psychic living reality in diverse and variable interrelationships unfolding within a complex temporality Ambivalently invested in by each partner the couple is structurally and dynamically as conflictual as it is critical Smadja sees the couple as situated at the intersection of several histories socio cultural epistemological the construction of this object of knowledge and of psychoanalytic treatment natural that of the cycle of conjugal life marked out by critical and mutative stages and therapeutic that of the suffering couple that will consult a specialist and undergo psychoanalytic therapy The Couple A pluridisciplinary story follows the narrative division of these histories following a pluri and interdisciplinary investigation combining historical anthropological sociological and psychoanalytic approaches It enables the reader to structure the outline of a general but irreducibly heterogeneous picture of the couple and by so doing Smadja is able to develop new interdisciplinary concepts in particular those of couple work and conjugal culture In the final part of the book he presents a full case study and introduces new technical aspects of this psychoanalytic work This unique approach to the study of the couple as a unit will appeal to psychoanalysts especially those working with couples psychologists

Rethinking Gendered Regulations and Resistances in Education Jessica Ringrose, 2014-06-11 Rethinking Gendered Regulations and Resistances in Education highlights key debates on the theme of regulation and resistance focusing on some of the most pressing contemporary issues in the field of gender and education today It underlines the need for educational research to attend to historical and psychosocial specificity chart local complexity and global disparity de colonise our Euro western centered gender analysis and consistently engage with the economic and policy domains of education as researchers and practitioners if we are to effectively tackle the diversity and complexity of gender equality issues in education Chapters in this collection showcase some of the varied and wide ranging theoretical approaches at play in current gender and education scholarship and raise questions about the types of research methods that can open up new ways of documenting processes of social and subjective struggle and transformation in education It stimulates important thinking about what has been what is and what can be as we face the future of gender and educational engagement struggle and debate This book was originally published as a special issue of Gender and Education

Psychology and the Natural Law of Reparation

C. Fred Alford, 2006-05-15 Are there universal values of right and wrong good and bad shared by virtually every human The tradition of natural law argues that there is Drawing on the work of psychoanalyst Melanie Klein whose analyses have touched upon issues related to original sin trespass guilt and salvation through reparation in this 2006 book C Fred Alford adds an extra dimension to this argument we know natural law to be true because we have hated before we have loved and have wished to destroy before we have wanted to create Natural law is built upon the desire to make reparation for the goodness we have destroyed or have longed to destroy Through reparation we earn salvation from the most hateful part of ourselves that which would destroy what we know to be good

Islamic Terror Avner Falk, 2008-07-30 Independent scholar Falk analyzes the genesis of Islamic terror from many standpoints including religious cultural historical political social economic and above all psychological Drawing on his training as a clinical psychologist Falk s writings specialize in psychohistory and political psychology Here he examines topics including infantile experience and adult terrorism the meaning of terror terrorists and their mothers narcissistic rage and Islamic terror and whether terrorists are normal people as some scholars claim He also describes the infantile development of terrorist pathology non psychoanalytic theories of terrorism globalization s effect on terrorism and the notion of the clash of civilizations Other topics addressed in this reader friendly analysis include history s first Islamic terrorists and three important cases two recent deadly terrorists and a primary figure in our current war on terror Independent scholar Falk analyzes the genesis of Islamic terror from many standpoints including religious cultural historical political social economic and above all psychological Drawing on his training as a clinical psychologist Falk s writings specialize in psychohistory and political psychology Here he examines topics including infantile experience and adult terrorism the meaning of terror terrorists and their mothers narcissistic rage and Islamic terror and whether terrorists are normal people as some scholars claim He also describes the infantile development of terrorist pathology non psychoanalytic theories of terrorism globalization s effect on terrorism and the notion of the clash of civilizations Examining the emotional structure of traditional Muslim families Falk shows us the Muslim child s ambivalence toward his or her parents ways in which Muslims abuse women and children and the roots of Muslim rage and why all of that plays into the development of future terrorism Other topics addressed in this reader friendly analysis include history s first

Islamic terrorists and three important cases two recent deadly terrorists and a primary figure in our current war on terror The central idea throughout the book is that a person's attitude toward terror and terrorism as well as whether he or she becomes a murderous terrorist or even who wages a global war on terror has much to do with that person's own terrifying experiences in infancy and childhood Such terror usually experienced first in the earliest interactions with the mother is symbolically expressed as Falk shows in fairy tales and myths about terrifying witches and female monsters Further terror may be experienced in the relationship with the father and also in various other traumatic ways It is these early terrors when extreme and uncontrollable that most often produce terrorists and wars on terror Falk argues Thus his book focuses on the conscious but also on the irrational and unconscious causes of terrorism Sincerity and Other Works Donald Meltzer, 2018-05-30 The author formulates here the existence of an anxiety apparatus whose functioning is a part of the ego and the personality structure and illustrates how in attacking this apparatus the ego is attacking itself An example is given of the workings of the death instinct and a differentiation is made between the ego's defence mechanisms and other pathological character devices The Democratic Arts of Mourning Alexander Keller Hirsch, David W. McIvor, 2019-01-21 The Democratic Arts of Mourning reflects on the variety of ways in which mourning affects political and social life In recent decades political theorists have increasingly examined and explored the themes of loss grief and mourning With an introduction that contextualizes the turn to mourning in previous scholarship on the politics of tragedy this book includes twelve chapters that clarify the intertwinement between politics and mourning The chapters are organized into five thematic sections that each shed light on how democratic societies relate to loss grief suffering and death Collectively the chapters explore the concept of mourning and its relationship to civic rituals memorials taboos social movements and popular music Chapters examine how social groups defend their members against experiences of grief or mourning or how poetic expressions such as ancient Greek tragedy can address the catastrophes of human life Other chapters explore the politics of symbols and bodies and how they can become fraught objects that stand in for a society's undigested unmourned losses and absences The book concludes with an interview with Bonnie Honig whose own work on mourning has been deeply influential in contemporary political theory The Criminal Law's Person Claes Lernestedt, Matt Matravers, 2022-02-10 The state's use of the threat and imposition of punishments to regulate conduct is thought or at least said by many to be legitimised by the idea that the criminal law's burdens only fall on those who are blameworthy for their conduct However the formal concept of blameworthiness needs to be made substantive This puts various ideas regarding the criminal law's person at the heart of debates about blame guilt and responsibility How is the criminal law's person constructed by whom and with what disciplinary norms How is it threatened by new knowledge and how do those threats play out amongst the various stakeholders who claim the criminal law's person as theirs To address these and cognate questions this volume brings together an international group of academics to engage with the criminal law's person from a range of disciplinary perspectives Other Banalities Jon Mills, 2012-07-26 Melanie Klein is one of the few analysts whose body of work has inspired sociologists philosophers religious scholars literary critics and political theorists all attracted to the cross fertilisation of her ideas Other Banalities represents a long over due exploration of her legacy including contributions from acclaimed interdisciplinary scholars and practitioners The contributors situate Klein within the history of the psychoanalytic movement investigate her key theoretical and clinical advances and look at how her thought has informed contemporary perspectives in the behavioural sciences and humanities Topics covered range from Klein's major psychological theories to clinical pathology child development philosophy sociology politics religion ethics and aesthetics This volume reflects the auspicious future for Kleinian revivalism and demonstrates the broad relevance of Kleinian thought It will be of great interest to scholars and practitioners of psychology psychoanalysis and psychotherapy Shelley's Ambivalence Christine Gallant, 1989-11-02 A study of Shelley's poetry approaching it from the viewpoint of contemporary Jungian analytical psychology that incorporates the theories of Melanie Klein and D W Winnicott Material that relates to the earliest stages of the ego's development to the pre Oedipal situation are used Ads, Fads, and Consumer Culture Arthur Asa Berger, 2007 Now in its third edition the popular Ads Fads and Consumer Culture is an engaging cultural studies critique of contemporary advertising and its impacts on American society Arthur Asa Berger looks at marketing strategies sex and advertising consumer culture political advertising and communication theory and process to give an accessible overview of advertising in America The new edition features up to date examples and new theoretical material including expanded discussions on critical analysis methods sexuality in advertising global advertising and neuromarketing and comes complete with updated ads and Berger's signature drawings Whether new to Berger's lively style of teaching and writing or loyal adopters advertising and media professors will want to check out the latest edition of this text Setting the Moral Compass Cheshire Calhoun, 2004 Setting the Moral Compass brings together the largely unpublished writings of 19 women moral philosophers whose work has contributed to the re setting of the compass of moral philosophy since the 1980s Setting the Moral Compass : Essays by Women Philosophers Cheshire Calhoun Professor of Philosophy Colby College, 2003-11-28 Setting the Moral Compass brings together the largely unpublished work of nineteen women moral philosophers whose powerful and innovative work has contributed to the re setting of the compass of moral philosophy over the past two decades The contributors who include many of the top names in this field tackle several wide ranging projects they develop an ethics for ordinary life and vulnerable persons they examine the question of what we ought to do for each other they highlight the moral significance of inhabiting a shared social world they reveal the complexities of moral negotiations and finally they show us the place of emotion in moral life The Klein-Winnicott Dialectic Susan Kavalier-Adler, 2018-05-01 The Klein Winnicott Dialectic Transformative New Metapsychology and Interactive Clinical Theory brings together the theories of Melanie Klein and Donald W Winnicott two giants and geniuses of the British school of object relations clinical and developmental theory and psychoanalytic technique In this book The author attempts to integrate the theories of Klein and Winnicott rather than polarising them as has been done often in the past This book takes the best of Klein and Winnicott for use by clinicians on an everyday basis without having the disputes between their followers interfere with the full and rich platter of theoretical offerings they each of them provided In addition this book looks at the biographies of Klein and Winnicott to show how their theories were inspired by their contrasting lives and contrasting parenting and developmental dynamics By examining their theories in relation to their biographies one can see why their dialectical theoretical focuses emerged highly contrasted in their major emphasis and yet highly complementary when applied together to clinical work
