Yeats, Ezra Pound, and the Poetry of Paradise Sean Pryor, 2016-02-24 Emphasizing the interplay of aesthetic forms and religious modes Sean Pryor's ambitious study takes up the endlessly reiterated longing for paradise that features throughout the works of W B Yeats and Ezra Pound Yeats and Pound define poetry in terms of paradise and paradise in terms of poetry Pryor suggests and these complex interconnections fundamentally shape the development of their art Even as he maps the shared influences and intellectual interests of Yeats and Pound and highlights those moments when their poetic theories converge Pryor's discussion of their poems profound formal and conceptual differences uncovers the distinctive ways each writer imagines the divine the good the beautiful or the satisfaction of desire Throughout his study Pryor argues that Yeats and Pound reconceive the quest for paradise as a quest for a new kind of poetry a journey that Pryor traces by analysing unpublished manuscript drafts and newly published drafts that have received little attention For Yeats and Pound the journey towards a paradisaic poetic becomes a never ending quest at once self defeating and self fulfilling a formulation that has implications not only for the work of these two poets but for the study of modernist literature

Rousseau's Theodicy of Self-Love Frederick Neuhouser, 2008-07-10 Jean Jacques Rousseau revolutionized our understanding of ourselves with his brilliant investigation of amour propre the passion that drives humans to seek the esteem approval admiration or love the recognition of their fellow beings Frederick Neuhouser traces the development of this key idea in modern thought

Faith, Hope, and Love in the Technological Society Franz A. Foltz, Frederick A. Foltz, 2018-07-31 Franz and Frederick Foltz examine how modern technology creates an environment that significantly affects Christianity by reducing the mysteries of faith to manageable techniques The body of their work analyzes the effects of technology on the theological virtues of faith hope and love the triad that believers have used for a common narrative to understand and express their thoughts and experiences They begin by looking at how recent developments have brought us into a post truth era by removing words from their context in nature time place and community Popular theologies such as the power of positive thinking the laws of creation the plan for salvation and the prosperity gospel reflect this change by gearing all for efficiently getting what we want and ignoring tradition The authors then examine each of the virtues separately finding that faith has become a risk management tool that depends on confidence in systems rather than personal relationships hope is defined as the expectation that our present desires shall be granted rather than a vision of the future and love has become an intimacy that provides escape from the real world and community rather than a self denying care for them Finally the authors take a look at some appropriate responses

Faith, Hope and Clarity: A look at Biblical and Situation Ethics Gordon

Kainer, 2012-03-24 Truthfulness Morality Ethics Christians face fundamental questions regarding deep issues and everyday problems Are there situations in life where obedience to God's law is not the most practical solution Is lying always wrong Situation ethics attempts to answer questions like these by affirming that doing the loving thing is a higher priority than obedience to God's law The author endeavors to show how disregard for divine law though seemingly attractive reasonable and practical is untenable The book reveals how a situationalist follows a misguided ego rather than an objective standard Whether we manipulate others to suit our own purposes lie to avoid embarrassment or commit a minor indiscretion it's just a quick fix something that only lasts for a season Discover how the eye of faith adheres to God's directives unblinded by sin's attractive glow it contemplates a lifetime it considers eternity

Logic in High Definition Alessandro Giordani,Jacek Malinowski,2020-11-19 This volume clusters together issues centered upon the variety of types of intensional semantics Consisting of 10 contributions the volume is based on papers presented at the Trends in Logic 2019 conference The various chapters introduce readers to the topic or apply new types of logical semantics to elucidate subtleties of logical systems and natural language semantics The book introduces hyperintentional systems that aim at solving some open philosophical problems Specifically the first three studies focus on relating semantics while the following ones discuss fundamental issues related to hyper intensional semantics or develop hyper intensional frameworks to address issues in modal epistemic deontic and action logic Authors in this volume present original results on logical systems but also extend beyond this by offering philosophical considerations on the topic as well This volume will appeal to students and researchers in the field of logic

The Mosaic Law Duke F. McGee,2016-09-22 Too many times we read books articles or papers on Christianity and we are left to wonder where the author is coming from or what his approach is for interpreting scripture So right here at the start I would like to declare my method of interpretation and on which translation of the scripture I rest First I take the Word of God scriptures to be infallible inerrant and without contradiction I believe that God said what he meant and meant what he said and it is our task and responsibility to rightly divide the Word of truth On all matters of life and spirit the scripture is the final authority in saying this the scripture will be the primary source material for the whole of this paper When speaking of the scripture I am referring to the authorized version 1611 I believe this is the preserved Word of God for the English speaking people I realize this is another hotly debated topic and we do not have the time or the space to debate it here as this would be a distraction from the main topic I will say though outside of textual criticisms biblical preservation manuscript evidence dynamic or formal equivalence translation and a host other topics in this debate it all comes down to this who is the final authority We as Christians need to take a stand we need to pick a version or translation that we believe is the Word of God and say Thus saith the Word of God If we do not we set ourselves up as the final authority and not God we dont like how one version says something so we go to another and another until we find one that says what we want or that proves our point This is not being transformed by the Word of God but making the Word of God conform to us and our biases It is a matter of faith
