

CRIMINAL LAW
MID-TERM TEST (MAIN PAPER)
05 JUNE 2023

LECTURERS: Ms Alina Starosta (Co-Ordinator), Mr Boyane Tshehla & Mr Blake Martin

DURATION: 2 hours in one sitting (plus 30 minutes to allow for upload) accessible over 12 hours but timed from commencement.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. This test counts for 30% of your mark for Criminal Law.
2. Please plan your answers to ensure that you deal with every element in issue in each question.
3. Please time yourselves so that you spend approximately 40-45 minutes on each question (including sub questions) in order to have enough time to upload.
4. You are advised to be concise and to remain within the word and page limit as follows:

5 marks = A maximum of 300 words

10 marks = A maximum of 600 words

Nothing exceeding 50 words over the prescribed word limit will be marked so you need to get straight to the point and show your knowledge of the specific issues at hand.

5. You must answer each question in a separate word document and upload each answer to the corresponding question on Ulwazi. For specific directions, you are advised to consult the communique posted in advance of this assessment which is also attached hereto. It contains all logistical arrangements pertaining to this assessment (scope, duration, format, uploading directions etc.)

May June Criminal Law Question Paper 23:

Corporations, Accountability and International Criminal Law Kyriakakis, Joanna, 2021-12-09 This timely book explores the prospect of prosecuting corporations or individuals within the business world for conduct amounting to international crime The major debates and ensuing challenges are examined arguing that corporate accountability under international criminal law is crucial in achieving the objectives of international criminal justice

The Structures of The Criminal Law R. A. Duff, Lindsay Farmer, Massimo Renzo, S. E. Marshall, Victor Tadros, 2011 Criminalization is a new series arising from an interdisciplinary investigation into the issue of criminalization focussing on the principles and goals that should guide decisions about what kinds of conduct are to be criminalized and the forms that criminalization should take Developing a normative theory of criminalization the six volumes will tackle the key questions at the heart of issue By reference to what principles and goals should legislations decide what to criminalize How should criminal wrongs be classified and differentiated And how should law enforcement officials apply the law s specification of offences The second volume in the series concerns itself with the structures of criminal law in three different senses The first examines the internal structure of the criminal law itself and the questions posed by familiar distinctions between which offences are typically analysed These questions of classification include discussion of the growing range of crimes and the problems posed by this broadening of definition Should traditional ideas and conceptions of the criminal law be reshaped in light of recent developments or should these developments be criticized and refuted Structures of criminal law also refer to the place of the criminal law within the larger structure of the law Here the book examines the relationships with and between the criminal law and other aspects of law particularly private law and public law It also looks at how the criminal law is made and by whom Finally the third sense of structure is outlined the relationships between legal structures and social and political structures What place does the criminal law have within the existing political and social landscapes What are the influences both political and social upon the criminal law and should they be allowed to influence the law in this fashion What is its proper role Focussing not only on the questions about the criminal law s proper scope but also on crucial questions about how crimes should be structured defined and classified this book provides a deeper understanding of criminalization

Law's Impunity Hin-Yan Liu, 2015-09-24 When faced with those who act with impunity we seek the protection of law We rely upon the legal system for justice from international human rights law that establishes common standards of protection to international criminal law that spearheads efforts to end impunity for the most heinous atrocities While legal processes are perceived to combat impunity and despite the ready availability of the law accountability often remains elusive What if the law itself enables impunity Law s Impunity asks this question in the context of the modern Private Military Company PMC examining the relationship between law and the concepts of responsibility and impunity This book proposes that ordinary legal processes do not neutralise but rather legalise impunity This radical idea is applied to the abysmal record of human rights violations perpetrated by the modern PMC and the shocking absence of accountability This book demonstrates how the law organises rather than overcomes impunity by detailing how the modern PMC exploits ordinary legal processes to systematically exclude itself from legal responsibility Thus Law s Impunity offers an alternative to conventional thinking about the law providing an innovative approach to assess and refine the rigour of legal processes in the ongoing quest to end impunity

Dangerous Sexualities Frank Mort,2002-09-11 Dangerous Sexualities takes a look at how our ideas of health and disease are linked to moral and immoral notions of sex Beginning in the 1830s Frank Mort relates his social historical narratives to the sexual choices and possibilities facing us now This long awaited second edition has been thoroughly updated to include new discussions of eugenics race hygiene and social imperialism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries With a new and extended bibliography introduction and illustrations this second edition brings a classic into the 21st Century
