Democracy Disconnected Fiona Anciano, Laurence Piper, 2018-10-03 Why is dissatisfaction with local democracy endemic despite the spread of new participatory institutions This book argues that a key reason is the limited power of elected local officials especially to produce the City City Hall lacks control over key aspects of city decision making especially under conditions of economic globalisation and rapid urbanisation in the urban South Demonstrated through case studies of daily politics in Hout Bay Democracy Disconnected shows how Cape Town residents engage local rule In the absence of democratic control urban rule in the Global South becomes a complex and contingent framework of multiple and multilevel forms of urban governance FUG that involve City Hall but are not directed by it Bureaucratic governance coexists alongside market developmental and informal forms of governance This disconnect of democracy from urban governance segregates people spatially socially but also politically Thus while the residents of Hout Bay may live next to each other they do not live with each other This book will be a valuable resource for students on programmes such as urban studies political science sociology development studies and political geography
