Beckett,2013-10-11 Transcending Boundaries Writing for a Dual Audience of Children and Adults is a collection of essays on twentieth century authors who cross the borders between adult and children s literature and appeal to both audiences This collection of fourteen essays by scholars from eight countries constitutes the first book devoted to the art of crosswriting the child and adult in twentieth century international literature Sandra Beckett explores the multifaceted nature of crossover literature and the diverse ways in which writers cross the borders to address a dual readership of children and adults It considers classics such as Alice s Adventures in Wonderland and Pinocchio with particular emphasis on post World War II literature The essays in Transcending Boundaries clearly suggest that crossover literature is a major widespread trend that appears to be sharply on the rise A History of the Study of the Indigenous Languages of North America Marcin Kilarski, 2021-12-06 The languages indigenous to North America are characterized by a remarkable genetic and typological diversity Based on the premise that linguistic examples play a key role in the origin and transmission of ideas within linguistics and across disciplines this book examines the history of approaches to these languages through the lens of some of their most prominent properties These properties include consonant inventories and the near absence of labials in Iroquoian languages gender in Algonquian languages verbs for washing in the Iroquoian language Cherokee and terms for snow and related phenomena in Eskimo Aleut languages By tracing the interpretations of the four examples by European and American scholars the author illustrates their role in both lay and professional contexts as a window onto unfamiliar languages and cultures thus allowing a more holistic view of the history of language study in North America The Palgrave Handbook of Literary Translation Jean Boase-Beier, Lina Fisher, Hiroko Furukawa, 2018-06-26 This Handbook offers a comprehensive and engaging overview of contemporary issues in Literary Translation research through in depth investigations of actual case studies of particular works authors or translators Leading researchers from across the globe discuss best practice problems and possibilities in the translation of poetry novels memoir and theatre Divided into three sections these illuminating analyses also address broad themes including translation style the author translator reader relationship and relationships between national identity and literary translation The case studies are drawn from languages and language varieties such as Catalan Chinese Dutch English French German Hebrew Italian Japanese Nigerian English Russian Spanish Scottish English and Turkish The editors provide thorough introductory and concluding chapters which highlight the value of case study research and explore in detail the importance of the theory practice link Covering a wide range of topics perspectives methods languages and geographies this handbook will provide a valuable resource for researchers not only in Translation Studies but also in the related fields of Linguistics Languages and Cultural Studies Stylistics Comparative Literature or Literary Studies Crossover Fiction Sandra L. Beckett, 2010-11-24 In Crossover Fiction Sandra L Beckett explores the global trend of crossover literature and explains how it is transforming literary canons concepts of readership the status of authors the publishing industry and bookselling practices This study will have significant relevance across disciplines as scholars in literary studies media and cultural studies visual arts education psychology and sociology examine the increasingly blurred borderlines between adults and young people in contemporary society notably with regard to their consumption of popular culture No Trespassing Eva Hemmungs Wirtén, 2004-01-01 In this scholarly yet highly accessible work Eva Hemmungs Wirtén traces three main themes within the scope of cultural ownership authorship as one of the basic features of print culture the use of intellectual property rights as a privileged instrument of control and finally globalization as a pre condition under which both operate Underwritten by rapid technological change and increased global interdependence intellectual property rights are designed to protect a production that is no longer industrial but informational No Trespassing tells the story of a century of profound change in cultural ownership It begins with late nineteenth century Europe exploring cultural ownership in a number of settings across both spatial and temporal divides and concludes in today's global knowledge based society Wirtén takes an interdisciplinary and international approach using a wide array of material from court cases to novels for her purposes From Victor Hugo and the 1886 Berne Convention to the translation of Peter Heg's bestseller Smilla's Sense of Snow Wirtén charts a history of Intellectual property rights and regulations She addresses the relationship between author and translator looks at the challenges to intellectual property by the arrival of the photocopier takes into account the media conglomerate's search for content as a key asset since the 1960s and considers how a Western legal framework interacts with attempts to protect traditional knowledge and folklore No Trespassing is essential reading for all who care about culture and the future regulatory structures of access to it

The Cambridge Companion to World Crime Fiction Jesper Gulddal, Stewart King, Alistair Rolls, 2022-04-21 Accessible yet comprehensive this first systematic account of crime fiction across the globe offers a deep and thoroughly nuanced understanding of the genre's transnational history Offering a lucid account of the major theoretical issues and comparative perspectives that constitute world crime fiction this book introduces readers to the international crime fiction publishing industry the translation and circulation of crime fiction international crime fiction collections the role of women in world crime fiction and regional forms of crime fiction It also illuminates the past and present of crime fiction in various supranational regions across the world including East and South Asia the Arab World Sub Saharan Africa Europe and Scandinavia as well as three spheres defined by a shared language namely the Francophone Lusophone and Hispanic worlds Thoroughly researched and broad in scope this book is as valuable for general readers as for undergraduate and postgraduate students of popular fiction and world literature

Compatriots or Competitors? Hywel Dix, 2022-11-15 Rather than being limited to political or legal discussion like most books on Brexit this book explores the relationship between cultural production and Brexit both in the lead up to it and in its aftermath It is the first major study to take a comparative approach to analysing the relationship between cultural production and Brexit in all 4 nations of the UK This comparative approach is necessary to get a detailed picture of the complex dynamics at work across each This book is highly interdisciplinary in nature looking at the rise of the cultural industries the relationship between the UK City of Culture festival and its fore runner the European Capital of Culture national book prizes in Britain and Europe British variations on Nordic Noir TV and the Brexit novel As a result it draws on research in the disciplines of geography economics film and television studies history and politics as well as publishing and literary studies

Noir in the North Stacy Gillis, Gunnthorunn Gudmundsdottir, 2020-10-01 What is often termed Nordic Noir has dominated detective fiction film and television internationally for over two decades But what are the parameters of this genre both historically and geographically What is noirish and what is northern about Nordic noir The foreword and coda in this volume by two internationally bestselling writers of crime fiction in the north Yrsa Sigurðardóttir and Gunnar Staalesen speak to the social contract undertaken by writers of noir while the interview with the renowned crime writer Val McDermid adds nuance to our understanding of what it is to write noir in the North

Divided into four sections Gender and Sexuality Space and Place Politics and Crime and Genre and Genealogy Noir in the North challenges the traditional critical histories of noir by investigating how it functions transnationally beyond the geographical borders of Scandinavia The essays in this book deepen our critical understanding of noir more generally by demonstrating for example Nordic noir's connection to fin de siècle literatures and to mid century interior design and by investigating the function of the state in crime fiction

The Reception of Joseph Conrad in Europe Robert Hampson, Véronique Pauly, 2022-05-05 Born and brought up in Poland bilingually in French and Polish but living for most of his professional life in England and writing in English Joseph Conrad was from the start as much a European writer as he was a British one and his work from his earliest fictions through Heart of Darkness Nostromo and The Secret Agent to his later novels has repeatedly been the focal point of discussions about key issues of the modern age With chapters written by leading international scholars this book provides a wide ranging survey of the reception translation and publication history of Conrad's works across Europe Covering reviews and critical discussion and with some attention to adaptations in other media these chapters situate Conrad's works in their social and political context The book also includes bibliographies of key translations in each of the European countries covered and a timeline of Conrad's reception throughout the continent

Locating Nordic Noir Kim Toft Hansen, Anne Marit Waade, 2017-10-14 This book is a comprehensive study of Nordic Noir television drama from the 1990s until today The authors introduce the history of contemporary Nordic Noir from the perspective of place production and location studies The chapters include readings of well known television crime dramas such as Beck The Killing Trapped and The Bridge as well as a range of other important Nordic Noir cases The authors position the development of Nordic Noir in the global market for popular television drama and place the international attention towards Nordic crime dramas within regional development of drama production in Sweden Denmark Norway and Iceland Consequently Nordic Noir is read as both a transnational financial and creative phenomenon and as a local possibility for community building Offering a comprehensible scholarly and methodologically original approach to the popularity of Nordic television crime dramas this volume is aimed at readers with an interest in crime drama as well as scholars and students of television drama

International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i.e. the reader's knowledge, experience, interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation. This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference. The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism.
