Shaun Usher, 2018-12-04 From the author of the New York Times bestseller Letters of Note comes a collection of 75 of history's most interesting profound and sometimes unknown speeches from a range of scintillating personalities such as Frederick Douglass Justin Trudeau Albert Einstein Meghan Markle Barbara Jordan and Ursula K Le Guin This thoughtfully curated and richly illustrated collection celebrates oratory old and new highlighting speeches we know and admire while also shining a light on profound drafts that were never delivered or have until now been forgotten From George Bernard Shaw's warm and rousing toast to Albert Einstein in 1930 and the commencement address affectionately given to graduates at Long Island University by Kermit the Frog to the chilling public announcement that was thankfully never made by President Richard Nixon should Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin become stranded on the moon Speeches of Note honors the words and ideas of some of history's most provocative and inspiring personages The Time of Their Lives Al Silverman, 2008-09-16

The golden age of book publishing Al Silverman informs us with utter certainty began in 1946 and lasted into the late 1970s and early 1980s In his intimate history of those years Silverman sets out to prove this sweeping conceit by relying on the eyes and ears and memories of the men and women who were there creating that history Without inhibition more than 120 of the most notable heads of houses editors and publishers of this time shared many never before told stories about how the most important books in postwar America came into being and are still being read today In The Time of Their Lives we learn how Robert Gottlieb worked with Joseph Heller to make Catch 18 as it was then called into the world renowned Catch 22 Corlies Cork Smith took a risk on a shy young man he had never heard of Thomas Pynchon after being absorbed by one of his earliest short stories Leona Nevler edited under delicate working conditions with a most difficult author to make Peyton Place a novel for all generations It was Arthur Thornhill Sr in his years as president of Little Brown's grand publishing house who said about the occupation he loved I wanted to be part of something that was good his word for publishing in the golden age In this fascinating and elegiac history Al Silverman illuminates a period in publishing that was not only good but formed a distinguishing landmark of culture in American life a golden time that certainly deserves a new life 1,911 Best Things Anybody Ever Said Robert Byrne, 1988 A collection of 1 911 quotes from scholars comedians political candidates writers reporters philosophers and other people from throughout history Clay's Handbook of Environmental Health Stephen Battersby, 2016-07-01 Clay's Handbook of Environmental Health since its first publication in 1933 has provided a definitive guide for the environmental health practitioner or reference for the consultant or student This 21th edition continues as a first point of reference reviewing the core principles techniques and competencies and then outlining the specialist subjects It has been refocused on the current curriculum of the UK's Chartered Institute of Environmental Health but should also readily suit the generalist or specialist working outside the UK Step Across This Line Salman Rushdie, 2010-11-05 From
