Pathways Towards Reinventing the South African University Sabrina Liccardo, 2020-11-02 This book proposes a conceptual empirical framework for exploring forms of continuity and change along psychosocial pathways in South African universities. It illustrates how the psychosocial pathways are grounded in the symbolic narratives and knowledges of young scientists, engineers, and architects, all interlocutors in the research from which this book is based. Alala Mamorotwa, Welile Odirile, Kaiya Amirah, Takalani Nosakhele, Naila Ambani, Khanyisile Itumeleng, Ethwasa and Kgnaya provide collective standpoints in the multiplicities within and between the lived lives and told stories of young Black South African women in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) fields. In doing so, this compelling work advances possibilities for demythologising scientific endeavour as a white male achievement and shifting knowledge communities across gendered, racialised, class, and national divides. This book presents an innovative narrative methodology utilising the myth of the Minotaur to examine the state of the university at the heart of the hierarchical labyrinth in post-apartheid South Africa. Throughout the work, the author wrestles with and self-reflexively highlights her own positionality as a white middle-class South African woman to examine how this affects the production of this research in ways which serve to preserve the colonial knowledge system. With the rise of the Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall student movement in South Africa, demanding for the fall of institutionalised racial hierarchies, the author uses the cover image of narrative formations in the spirit of exploration to think with and through undulating networked forms that could possibly forge new psychosocial pathways towards decolonising and reinventing South African universities. This work offers a unique conceptual and methodological resource for students and scholars of psychosocial and narrative theory, as well as those who are concerned about the politics of higher education both in South Africa and in other contexts around the world.

Advanced Nursing Practices for Clinical Excellence Amane, Mounia, Boussaa, Samia, 2025-04-02 In an ever-changing world, healthcare needs to keep pace. With the advancement of technology, the emergence of new diseases, and the changing needs of patients, it is imperative that healthcare professionals adopt innovative approaches to meet today's challenges. Nurses play a crucial role in delivering quality patient-centered care by adopting advanced practices to respond effectively to these demands. Therefore, it is important for them to have an in-depth understanding of the latest developments in advanced care. Advanced Nursing Practices for Clinical Excellence explores advanced care from a new perspective, highlighting the knowledge, emerging practices, revolutionary technologies, and visionary strategies that are transforming the healthcare landscape. Covering topics such as narrative medicine, simulation training, and emergency care, this book is an excellent resource for nurses, healthcare professionals, policymakers, professionals, researchers, scholars, academicians, and more.

Compensation Schemes for Damages Caused by Healthcare and Alternatives to Court Proceedings Dobrochna Bach-Golecka, 2021-05-16 The book discusses compensation mechanisms and other non-judicial means that offer alternatives to court proceedings designed and provided for within national legal regimes. Such schemes are primarily of a civil or administrative character and are mainly intended to supplement criminal liability for medical negligence. As such, the book focuses on medical malpractice and prospective medical harm from a civil law perspective. It examines the contemporary perspective of a patient-physician relationship which has evolved from a relation of a quasi-patrimonial character into a partnership of quasi-equal parties dealing with a medical treatment procedure as a scientific endeavor. It also reviews the extra-legal conditions that are taken into account in compensation arrangements, particularly the need to satisfy a psychological urge for conciliation and empathy on the part of medical personnel. Lastly, the book explores the responsibility of public authorities and healthcare providers to guarantee access to healthcare that is of a sufficient quality based upon standards provided for in international and European law.
