Chiavetta, Silvana Sciarrino, 2014-05-02 This volume combines strands of research currently being debated in linguistic scholarship such as the issue of specialized discourse the issue of knowledge dissemination and the issue of the versatility of genres It presents some of the relevant findings of an Italian National Research Project focusing on specialized discourse which involved researchers and scholars from several Italian universities Discursive popularisation is here analysed with regard to the domain of natural sciences particularly focusing on botany and gardening Another relevant feature of the book is the diachronic approach used in discussing the issue of popularisation The authors of the volume focus on their research following their own methodological choices and as such investigate critical discourse analysis genre analysis and corpus analysis All the authors however apply a diachronic perspective to their study Chapters therefore span from the dissemination of science in the 17th century English scientific community through the Late Modern English Period to the end of the 19th century throughout the 20th century up to the present day Within the common frame of natural sciences each author develops a specific topic such as Irish botanical terminology the development of garden notebooks the manipulation of
