Grade 1past History Paper Jhb:

History from South Africa Joshua Brown,1991 More starkly than any other contemporary social conflict the crisis in South Africa highlights the complexities and conflicts in race gender class and nation These original articles most of which were written by South African authors are from a special issue of the Radical History Review published in Spring 1990 that mapped the development of interpretations of the South African past that depart radically from the official history The articles range from the politics of black movements in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to studies of film television and theater as reflections of modern social conflict History from South Africa is presented in two main sections discussions of the historiography of South Africa from the viewpoint of those rewriting it with a radical outlook and investigations into popular history and popular culture the production and reception of history in the public realm In addition two photo essays dramatize this history visually maps and a chronology complete the presentation The book provides a fresh look at major issues in South African social and labor history and popular culture and focuses on the role of historians in creating and interacting with a popular movement of resistance and social change Dockworker Power Peter Cole,2018-12-30 Philip Taft Labor History Book Award Labor and Working Class History Association LAWCHA and the Cornell ILR School 2019 A Black Perspectives Best Black History Book of 2018 Dockworkers have power Often missed in commentary on today s globalizing economy workers in the world s ports can harness their role at a strategic choke point to promote their labor rights and social justice causes Peter Cole brings such overlooked experiences to light in an eye opening comparative study of Durban South Africa and the San Francisco Bay Area California Path breaking research reveals how unions effected lasting change in some of the most far reaching struggles of modern times First dockworkers in each city drew on longstanding radical traditions to promote racial equality Second they persevered when a new technology container ships sent a shockwave of layoffs through the industry Finally their commitment to black internationalism and leftist politics sparked transnational work stoppages to protest apartheid and authoritarianism Dockworker Power not only brings to light surprising parallels in the experiences of dockers half a world away from each other It also offers a new perspective on how workers can change their conditions and world S. Chand's ICSE HISTORY & CIVICS for Class -X Dr Tapati Das Gupta & Sohini Dasgupta, S Chand s ICSE History Civics for Classes IX X strictly adhere to the latest ICSE syllabus It is divided into three sections Civics Indian History and the Contemporary World Public History and Culture in South Africa Ali Khangela Hlongwane,Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu,2019-04-11 The post apartheid era in South Africa has in the space of nearly two decades experienced a massive memory boom manifest in a plethora of new memorials and museums and in the renaming of streets buildings cities and more across the country This memorialisation is intricately linked to questions of power liberation and public history in the making and remaking of the South African nation Ali Khangela Hlongwane and Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu analyse an array of these liberation heritage sites including the Hector Pieterse Memorial and Museum the June 16 1976

Interpretation Centre the Apartheid Museum and the Mandela House Museum foregrounding the work of migrant workers architects visual artists and activists in the practice of memorialisation As they argue memorialisation has been integral to the process of state and nation formation from the pre colonial era through the present day Colour, Class and Community - The Natal Indian Congress, 1971-1994 Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2021-11-01 Positions the history and inner workings of the Natal Indian Congress NIC against the canvas of the major political developments in South Africa during the 1970s and 1980s up to the first democratic elections in 1994 Following a hiatus in the 1960s the Natal Indian Congress NIC in South Africa was revived in 1971 In fascinating detail Ashwin Desai and Goolam Vahed bring the inner workings of the NIC to life against the canvas of major political developments in South Africa during the 1970s and 1980s and up to the first democratic elections in 1994 The NIC was relaunched during the rise of the Black Consciousness Movement which attracted a following among Indian university students and whose invocation of Indians as Black led to a major debate about ethnic organisations such as the NIC This debate persisted in the 1980s with the rise of the United Democratic Front and its commitment to non racialism The NIC was central to other major debates of the period most significantly the lines drawn between boycotting and participating in government created structures such as the Tri Cameral Parliament Despite threats of banning and incarceration the NIC kept attracting recruits who encouraged the development of community organisations such as students radicalised by the 1980s education boycotts and civic protests Colour Class and Community The Natal Indian Congress 1971 1994 details how some members of the NIC played dual roles as members of a legal organisation and as allies of the African National Congress underground armed struggle Drawing on varied sources including oral interviews newspaper reports and minutes of organisational meetings this in depth study tells a largely untold history challenging existing narratives around Indian cabalism and bringing the African and Indian political story into present debates about race class and nation

Museum as Process Raymond Silverman, 2014-09-19 The museum has become a vital strategic space for negotiating ownership of and access to knowledges produced in local settings Museum as Process presents community engaged culture work of a group of scholars whose collaborative projects consider the social spaces between the museum and community and offer new ways of addressing the challenges of bridging the local and the global Museum as Process explores a variety of strategies for engaging source communities in the process of translation and the collaborative mediation of cultural knowledges Scholars from around the world reflect upon their work with specific communities in different parts of the world Australia Canada Ghana Great Britain New Zealand Papua New Guinea Philippines South Africa Taiwan and the United States Each global case study provides significant insights into what happens to knowledge as it moves back and forth between source communities and global sites especially the museum Museum as Process is an important contribution to understanding the relationships between museums and source communities and the flow of cultural knowledge Prisoners of the Past Steven Friedman, 2021-06-01 Building on the work of economic historian Douglass North and Ugandan political scholar Mahmood Mamdani Friedman argues that the difficulties besetting South African democracy are legacies of the past not products of the post 1994 era South Africa's democracy is often seen as a story of bright beginnings gone astray a pattern said to be common to Africa The negotiated settlement of 1994 it is claimed ended racial domination and created the foundation for a prosperous democracy but greedy politicians betrayed the promise of a new society In Prisoners of the Past Steven Friedman astutely argues that this misreads the nature of contemporary South Africa Building on the work of the economic historian Douglass North and the political thinker Mahmood Mamdani Friedman shows that South African democracy's difficulties are legacies of the pre 1994 past The settlement which ushered in majority rule left intact core features of the apartheid economy and society The economy continues to exclude millions from its benefits while racial hierarchies have proved stubborn apartheid is discredited but the values of the pre 1948 colonial era the period of British colonization still dominate Thus South Africa's democracy supports free elections civil liberties and the rule of law but also continues past patterns of exclusion and domination Friedman reasons that this path dependence is not as is often claimed the result of constitutional compromises in 1994 that left domination untouched This bargain was flawed because it brought not too much compromise but too little Compromises extended political citizenship to all but there were no similar bargains on economic and cultural change Using the work of the radical sociologist Harold Wolpe Friedman shows that only negotiations on a new economy and society can free South Africans from the prison of the past

Mining Gold and Manufacturing Ignorance Jock McCulloch, Pavla Miller, 2023-03-20 This open access book charts how South Africa's gold mines have systematically suppressed evidence of hazardous work practices and the risks associated with mining For most of the twentieth century South Africa was the world's largest producer of gold Although the country enjoyed a reputation for leading the world in occupational health legislation the mining companies developed a system of medical surveillance and workers compensation which compromised the health of black gold miners facilitated the spread of tuberculosis and ravaged the communities and economies of labour sending states The culmination of two decades of meticulous archival research this book exposes the making contesting and unravelling of the companies capacity to shape and corrupt medical knowledge

A Companion to African History William H. Worger, Charles Ambler, Nwando Achebe, 2018-09-17 Covers the history of the entire African continent from prehistory to the present day A Companion to African History embraces the diverse regions subject matter and disciplines of the African continent while also providing chronological and geographical coverage of basic historical developments Two dozen essays by leading international scholars explore the challenges facing this relatively new field of historical enquiry and present the dynamic ways in which historians and scholars from other fields such as archaeology anthropology political science and economics are forging new directions in thinking and research Comprised of six parts the book begins with thematic approaches to African history exploring the environment gender and family medical practices and more Section two covers Africa's early history and its pre colonial past early human adaptation the emergence of kingdoms royal power and warring states The third section looks at the era of the slave trade and European expansion Part four examines the process of conquest the discovery of diamonds and gold military and social response and more Colonialism is discussed in the sixth section with chapters on the economy transformed due to the development of agriculture and mining industries The last section studies the continent from post World War II all the way up to modern times Aims at capturing the enthusiasms of practicing historians and encouraging similar passion in a new generation of scholars Emphasizes linkages within Africa as well as between the continent and other parts of the world All chapters include significant historiographical content and suggestions for further reading Written by a global team of writers with unique backgrounds and views Features case studies with illustrative examples In a field traditionally marked by narrow specialisms A Companion to African History is an ideal book for advanced students researchers historians and scholars looking for a broad yet unique overview of African history as a whole

Quantitative History and Uncharted People Johan Fourie, 2023-08-10 One of the biggest challenges in the study of history is the unreliable nature of traditional archival sources which omit histories of marginalised groups This book makes the case that quantitative history offers a way to fill these gaps in the archive Showcasing 13 case studies from the South African past it applies quantitative sources tools and methods to social histories from below to uncover the experiences of unchartered peoples Examining the occupations of slaves victims of the Spanish flu health of schoolchildren and more it shows how quantitative tools can be particularly powerful in regions where historical records are preserved but questions of bias and prejudice pervade Applying methods such as GIS mapping network analysis and algorithmic matching techniques it explores histories of indigenous peoples women enslaved peoples and other groups marginalised in South African history Connecting quantitative sources and new forms of data interpretation with a narrative social history this book offers a fresh approach to quantitative methods and shows how they can be used to achieve a more complete picture of the past
