Breaking Down the Wall Margarita Espino Calderon, Maria G. Dove, Diane Staehr Fenner, Margo Gottlieb, Andrea Honigsfeld, Tonya Ward Singer, Shawn Slakk, Ivannia Soto, Debbie Zacarian, 2019-09-11 It was a dark and stormy night in Santa Barbara January 19 2017 The next day's inauguration drumroll played on the evening news Huddled around a table were nine Corwin authors and their publisher who together have devoted their careers to equity in education They couldn't change the weather they couldn't heal a fractured country but they did have the power to put their collective wisdom about EL education upon the page to ensure our multilingual learners reach their highest potential Proudly we introduce you now to the fruit of that effort Breaking Down the Wall Essential Shifts for English Learners Success In this first of a kind collaboration teachers and leaders whether in small towns or large urban centers finally have both the research and the practical strategies to take those first steps toward excellence in educating our culturally and linguistically diverse children It's a book to be celebrated because it means we can throw away the dark glasses of deficit based approaches and see children who come to school speaking a different home language for what they really are learners with tremendous assets The authors' contributions are arranged in nine chapters that become nine tenets for teachers and administrators to use as calls to actions in their own efforts to realize our English learners' potential 1 From Deficit Based to Asset Based 2 From Compliance to Excellence 3 From Watering Down to Challenging 4 From Isolation to Collaboration 5 From Silence to Conversation 6 From Language to Language Literacy and Content 7 From Assessment of Learning to Assessment for and as Learning 8 From Monolingualism to Multilingualism 9 From Nobody Cares to Everyone Every Community Cares Read this book the chapters speak to one another a melodic echo of expertise classroom vignettes and steps to take To shift the status quo is neither fast nor easy but there is a clear process and it's laid out here in Breaking Down the Wall To distill it into a single line would go something like this if we can assume mutual ownership if we can connect instruction to all children's personal social cultural and linguistic identities then all students will achieve

Learner Voices, Perspectives, and Positionings Simon Taylor, Seán Bracken, 2025-07-10 This book explores the multifaceted concept of learner voice in education emphasising its significance across various contexts and historical periods It brings together diverse perspectives from multiple authors addressing how learner agency can shape educational practices and policies particularly in contemporary settings The chapters delve into critical themes such as the influence of teachers' beliefs on student learning the impact of polarisation in our current educational discourse and the historical voices of children in Victorian schools Notable case studies include a narrative approach to understanding higher education students' experiences and the examination of learner voice within prison education The book also addresses pressing issues such as the representation of marginalised voices and the importance of inclusive practices in school leadership and curriculum design Groundbreaking content includes discussions on epistemic violence highlighting the need for a more nuanced considered and critically aware approach to learner representation This important collection will be essential reading for educational studies students and trainee teachers as well as educators working in further or higher education It provides practical insights and theoretical frameworks that constitute a roadmap for strengthening diverse learners voice and agency thereby advancing educational equity and inclusion for all

The role of parent-child interactions in developmental psychopathology: methodological and intervention challenges and opportunities Rebecca Pearson,Tamsen Jean Rochat,Bronwyne Coetzee,2025-03-06 Parenting research has always faced substantial methodological challenges assumptions and stigma limiting understanding and translation to more family centred support In addition the focus of most research has focused on the early years with far less knowledge about the role of parents in pre adolescence adolescence and the transition to adulthood or beyond Parenting work lacks diversity with regards to inclusion across cultural settings and is usually limited to mothers the role of fathers grandparents adoptive and foster parents and step parents is under represented Current advancements in technology and data science as well as cross cohort collaboration enabling pooling of observed parent offspring interaction in larger numbers provides opportunities to bring together new understanding In addition enabling the voice of diverse parents with lived experience throughout the research process will enhance the meaning and interpretation of findings

Homeschooling in the 21st Century Robert Maranto, Debra A. Bell, 2018-10-18 Education began on the most intimate levels the family and the community With industrialization education became professionalized and bureaucratized typically conducted in schools rather than homes Over the past half century however schooling has increasingly returned home both in the United States and across the globe This reflects several trends including greater affluence and smaller family size leading parents to focus more on child well being declining faith in professionals including educators and the Internet whose resources facilitate home education In the United States students who are homeschooled for at least part of their childhood outnumber those in charter schools Yet remarkably little research addresses homeschooling This book brings together work from 20 researchers addressing a range of homeschooling topics including the evolving legal and institutional frameworks behind home education why some parents make this choice home education educational environments special education and outcomes regarding both academic achievement and political tolerance In short this book offers the most up to date research to guide policy makers and home educators a matter of great importance given the agenda of the current presidential administration The chapters in this book were originally published as articles in the Journal of School Choice
