Freire's time and work in Chile proved to be decisive in the making of Pedagogy of the Oppressed widely considered one of the most important books on critical pedagogy and adult learning and education in the twentieth century. The scope is confined to Paulo Freire's years of political exile in Chile from late November 1964 to mid April 1969. It builds upon evidence provided by scholarly research to answer four questions: What did Paulo Freire do during his years of exile in Chile? In which institutional contexts did he develop his pedagogical methods and political ideas? How was his literacy training method and participatory research approach shared throughout Latin America and the rest of the world? To what extent did his exile in Chile influence a paradigm shift in literacy training and adult education? Sourcebook for Sundays, Seasons, and Weekdays, 2012

This third and last open access volume in the series takes the perspective of non EU countries on immigrant social protection. By focusing on 12 of the largest sending countries to the EU, the book tackles the issue of the multiple areas of sending state intervention towards migrant populations. Two mirroring chapters are dedicated to each of the 12 non EU states analysed: Argentina, China, Ecuador, India, Lebanon, Morocco, Russia, Senegal, Serbia, Switzerland, Tunisia, Turkey. One chapter focuses on access to social benefits across five core policy areas: health care, unemployment, old age pensions, family benefits, guaranteed minimum resources by discussing the social protection policies that non EU countries offer to national residents, non national residents and non resident nationals. The second chapter examines the role of key actors: consulates, diaspora institutions and home country ministries and agencies through which non EU sending countries respond to the needs of nationals abroad. The volume additionally includes two chapters focusing on the peculiar case of the United Kingdom after the Brexit referendum. Overall, this volume contributes to ongoing debates on migration and the welfare state in Europe by showing how non EU sending states continue to play a role in third country nationals' ability to deal with social risks. As such, this book is a valuable read to researchers, policy makers, government employees and NGOs. Daily Labor Report, 2009-07 Summary of Events in Lesotho, 2014 The Autobiographical Self in Time and Culture Qi Wang, 2013-09-05.
