Management Wendong Yang, Shaolong Sun, Yiliao Song, Pei Du, Yan Hao, Jianzhou Wang, 2022-11-09 Quality Teaching and the Capability Approach Alison Buckler, 2015-04-24 This book provides an analytical exploration of the condition of teachers working in expanding school systems across the world with a particular focus on the lives of women teachers in rural Sub Saharan Africa Drawing from award winning research it looks beyond the official portrayals of teachers lives in order to better understand the reality of the contexts in which teachers live and work Positioning Amartya Sen s capability approach at the heart of the study each chapter considers documentary evidence alongside ethnographic research from rural remote and under resourced schools in Ghana Nigeria Kenya South Africa and Sudan Interweaving rich narratives from teachers in a variety of contexts the book proposes a concept of professional capability and examines female teachers agency to pursue and achieve this in their classrooms This key examination challenges existing notions of quality education and reveals insights into the broader purpose of schooling for rural communities Quality Teaching and the Capability Approach will be of value to researchers academics and postgraduate students in education particularly those concerned with gender development and teaching as well as educationalists and policy makers concerned with education and development

Environmental and Natural Resource Economics Jonathan M. Harris, Brian Roach, 2017-06-26 Environmental issues are of fundamental importance and a broad approach to understanding the relationship of the human economy and the natural world is essential In a rapidly changing policy and scientific context this new edition of Environmental and Natural Resource Economics reflects an updated perspective on modern environmental topics Now in its fourth edition this book includes new material on climate change the cost competitiveness of renewable energy global environmental trends and sustainable economies The text provides a balanced treatment of both standard environmental economics and ecological economics based on the belief that these two approaches are complementary Several chapters focus on the core concepts of environmental economics including the theory of externalities the management of public goods the allocation of resources across time environmental valuation and cost benefit analysis Material on ecological economics includes such topics as macroeconomic scale entropy and green national accounting Topical chapters focus on energy climate change water resources international trade forests fisheries and agriculture with an emphasis on designing effective policies to promote sustainability and a green economy Harris and Roach s premise is that a pluralistic approach is essential to understand the complex nexus between the economy and the environment This perspective combined with its emphasis on real world policies is particularly appealing to both instructors and students This is the ideal text for classes on environmental natural resource and ecological economics The book s companion website is available at <http://www.bu.edu/eci/education/materials/textbooks/environmental-and-natural-resource-economics> Knowledge and the City Francisco Javier Carrillo, Tan

Yigitcanlar, Blanca García, Antti Lönnqvist, 2014-08-01 This book underlines the growing importance of knowledge for the competitiveness of cities and their regions Examining the role of knowledge in its economic socio cultural spatial and institutional forms for urban and regional development identifying the preconditions for innovative use of urban and regional knowledge assets and resources and developing new methods to evaluate the performance and potential of knowledge based urban and regional development the book provides an in depth and comprehensive understanding of both theoretical and practical aspects of knowledge based development and its implications and prospects for cities and regions Blue Mind Wallace J. Nichols, 2024-12-03 The 10th anniversary edition of the landmark book on the remarkable effects of water on our health and well being A decade ago marine biologist Dr Wallace J Nichols revolutionized how we think about our connection to water exploring the questions we've long lacked answers to Why are we drawn to lakes rivers oceans beaches and pools each summer Why does being near water set our minds and bodies at ease boost creativity enhance wellness and increase longevity Over the past several years Blue Mind has become the ultimate resource on the remarkable benefits of being near in on or under water Combining cutting edge neuroscience psychology and cross disciplinary data with compelling personal stories from top athletes leading scientists military veterans and gifted artists Nichols shows how proximity to water can improve performance increase calm diminish anxiety and increase professional success Now with updated science backed research examples of innovative practitioners and a new afterword on the far reaching impact of this groundbreaking book Blue Mind not only illustrates the crucial importance of our connection to water it provides a paradigm shifting blueprint for a movement to create better lives for everyone on this Blue Marble we call home The Indian Journal of Agricultural Sciences, 2013-07 The Handbook of Social Work and Social Development in Africa Mel Gray, 2016-10-26 All recent books on international social work mention Africa only briefly and few engage with the broader field of development studies This book focuses solely on the unique African context engaging with issues relating to social work and development more broadly thus enabling a deeper examination and more complex and nuanced picture to emerge Unlike most academic works this book highlights multiple practitioner voices with authors or co authors that have recently been or are currently practising social workers As an edited book it draws from both academic research as well as lived practice experience supported by strong theoretical positioning and guidance in introductory chapters drawing on African literature wherever possible Looking at case studies from Lesotho Botswana Kenya Zimbabwe Ethiopia Namibia Uganda Nigeria Kenya South Africa Rwanda Zambia and Tanzania and covering established areas of practice such as child protection working with older people working with people with disabilities mental health and mainstream services targeting women as well as emerging areas of developmental social work practice such as humanitarian assistance in post conflict situations work with immigrants and refugees and the training of community based workers this book takes a future oriented perspective that aims to move beyond well worn critiques to envision constructive and sustainable futures for social work and social development in Africa
