House Of Decadence English Edition:

The Culture of Medieval English Monasticism James G. Clark, 2007 Examinations of the culture artistic material musical of English monasteries in the six centuries between the Conquest and the Dissolution The cultural remains of England s abbeys and priories have always attracted scholarly attention but too often they have been studied in isolation appreciated only for their artistic codicological or intellectual features and not for the insights they offer into the patterns of life and thought the underlying norms values and mentalities of the communities of men and women which made them Indeed the distinguished monastic historian David Knowles doubted there would ever be sufficient evidence to recover the mentality of the ordinary cloister monk These twelve essays challenge this view They exploit newly catalogued and newly discovered evidence manuscript books wall paintings and even the traces of original monastic music to recover the cultural dynamics of a cross section of male and female communities It is often claimed that over time the cultural traditions of the monasteries were suffocated by secular trends but here it is suggested that many houses remained a major cultural force even on the verge of the Reformation James G Clark is Professor of History at the University of Exeter Contributors DAVID BELL ROGER BOWERS JAMES CLARK BARRIE COLLETT MARY ERLER G R EVANS MIRIAM GILL JOAN GREATREX JULIAN HASELDINE J D NORTH ALAN PIPER AND R M THOMSON

Poe Abroad Lois Davis Vines, 2002-04-25 In Poe Abroad Lois Vines has brought together a collection of essays that document the American writer s influence on the diverse literatures and writers of the world Over twenty scholars demonstrate how and why Poe has significantly influenced many of the major literary figures of the last 150 years The British Architect , 1911 House & Garden , 1921

Fictions of Fact and Value Michael LeMahieu, 2013-10-02 Fictions of Fact and Value argues that the philosophy of logical positivism considered the antithesis of literary postmodernism exerts a determining influence on the development of American fiction in the three decades following 1945 in what amounts to a constitutive encounter between literature and philosophy at mid century after the end of modernism as it was traditionally conceived but prior to the rise of postmodernism as it came to be known Two particular postwar literary preoccupations derive from logical positivist philosophy the fact value problem and the correlative distinction between sense and nonsense Even as postwar writers responded to logical positivism as a threat to the imagination their works often manifest its influence specifically with regard to emotive or meaningless terms Far from a straightforward history of ideas Fictions of Fact and Value charts a genealogy that is often erased in the very texts where it registers and disowned by the very authors that it includes LeMahieu complicates a predominant narrative of intellectual history in which a liberating postmodernism triumphs over a reactionary positivism by historicizing the literary response to positivism in works by John Barth Saul Bellow Don DeLillo Iris Murdoch Flannery O Connor Thomas Pynchon and Ludwig

Wittgenstein As LeMahieu compelling demonstrates the centrality of the fact value problem to both positivism and postmodernism demands a rethinking of postwar literary history A trenchantly argued study that unearths an important part of postwar literary history Fictions of Fact and Value will interest anyone concerned with postmodernism modernist studies analytic philosophy or the history of ideas The Literary World ,1889 Singarevva and the Palace Chandrasekhara Kambar,2002 House & Garden ,1985
