House Hunting Finnish Style Megan Davies, 2014-11-20 Did the far north country of Finland even exist before the age of Scandi Noir Yes indeed and strange things happened there to Dr Fisher when compelled by fate to spend a holiday by its glittering lakes Absorbed in his lifetime passion the relentless study of truth and beauty he discovers in this land of nightless nights and tranquil waters more beauty than he ever could have imagined But how close does he ever get to the truth of the desperate dramas being played out all around him Set in London and Finland in the 1980s the book takes a humorous off beat look at the Finns and Finnishness not forgetting the impenetrable Finnish language through the strange tale of Dr Fisher Though the slant is lighthearted the author's decades of living in Finland ensure that the picture is authentic Nor is what goes on by any means all comedy Gothic and absorbing a story with untimely twists told with well honed irony The beguiling humour masks something much more sinister than the reader might expect Award winning novelist Margaret Elphinstone
