

Example Research Paper

The following paper is an example research paper which you can use as a model for your research paper. Your paper should include more details and go more in-depth about your topic, but this paper shows the general outline you should follow. Pay attention to the facts that are cited using in-text citations. Remember to put information that is word-for-word in quotes. Ideas that are from an author but put into your words also need to be cited but not put in quotes. Please remember you can always ask Miss Maze for assistance!

Research Paper Introduction Paragraph Example

Attention Grabber: Have you ever wanted to play a sport that is fast and requires a lot of skill? Have you ever wanted a competitive game that involves a lot of endurance? If you have, then lacrosse is a great sport for you. Supporting Sentences: John Doe says, "Lacrosse is a game of thrills and excitement. There is always something entertaining going on" (Doe 44). This sport always has thrilling action going on, which makes playing that much more enjoyable. "Playing lacrosse always boosts my mood. It gets my mind concentrating, and my body gets pushed to the limit" (Smith 45). Thesis Sentence: Lacrosse is a great game because of the game's speed, the aerobic endurance needed by the players, and the game strategies involved.

Research Paper First Body Paragraph Example

Transition Sentence: To begin, lacrosse is a wonderful game due to the speed of the game. Supporting Sentences: John Doe says, "The game of lacrosse can change in the blink of an eye, from one shot to one save to one interception" (Doe 44). This sport always has incredible passes and quick game play. "Playing lacrosse means always being in the game: mentally, physically, and emotionally. If you let down for one second, you could ruin the whole game" (Smith 45). Some lacrosse players can shoot the ball at incredible speeds, and some players are incredibly quick. Bob Jones says, "Lacrosse is such an amazing sport. It is almost like a combination of hockey and soccer.

The Psychology Major's Handbook Tara L. Kuther, 2024-05-14 Research shows that today's students are unique. Whether anxious, overwhelmed, or too busy to ask for help, modern students turn to the resources at their fingertips for guidance. Tara Kuther created The Psychology Major's Handbook for this purpose to bridge the gap between advisor and manual. Created to support and follow along with a student through college, this text provides the support of an advisor as students navigate choosing a major, learning how to study, writing papers, and deciding what to do after college. Within each chapter, Kuther supports learners in applying concepts to their own lives through embedded exercises. The updated Sixth Edition encourages students to take an active role in their education and explains all of the ways that students can influence their own college experiences. Three individual chapters emphasize academics and cover crucial study and college skills such as writing a review paper and an APA Style empirical paper. The final four chapters of the text focus on bachelor's and graduate opportunities to help students look past graduation.

Assignments across the Curriculum Dan Melzer, 2014-08-15 In Assignments across the Curriculum, Dan Melzer analyzes the rhetorical features and genres of writing assignments through the writing to learn and writing in the disciplines perspectives. Presenting the results of his study of 2,101 writing assignments from undergraduate courses in the natural sciences, social sciences, business, and humanities in 100 postsecondary institutions in the United States, Assignments across the Curriculum is unique in its cross institutional breadth and its focus on writing assignments The results provide a panoramic view of college writing in the United States Melzer s framework begins with the rhetorical situations of the assignments the purposes and audiences and broadens to include the assignments genres and discourse community contexts Among his conclusions is that courses connected to a writing across the curriculum WAC initiative ask students to write more often in a greater variety of genres and for a greater variety of purposes and audiences than non WAC courses do making a compelling case for the influence of the WAC movement Melzer s work also reveals patterns in the rhetorical situations genres and discourse communities of college writing in the United States These larger patterns are of interest to WAC practitioners working with faculty across disciplines to writing center coordinators and tutors working with students who bring assignments from a variety of fields to composition program administrators to first year writing instructors interested in preparing students for college writing and to high school teachers attempting to bridge the gap between high school and college writing
