Reporting Islam Jacqui Ewart, Kate O'Donnell, 2018-04-19 Reporting Islam argues for innovative approaches to media coverage of Muslims and their faith. The book examines the ethical dilemmas faced by Western journalists when reporting on this topic and offers a range of alternative journalistic techniques that will help news media practitioners move away from dominant news values and conventions when reporting on Islam. The book is based on an extensive review of international literature and interviews with news media editors, copy editors, senior reporters, social media editors in house, journalism trainers and journalism educators conducted for the Reporting Islam Project. In addition, the use of an original model, the Transformative Journalism Model, provides further insight into the nature of news reports about Muslims and Islam. The findings collated here help to identify the best and worst reporting practices adopted by different news outlets, as well as the factors which have influenced them. Building on this, the authors outline a new strategy for more accurate, fair and informed reporting of stories relating to Muslims and Islam. By combining an overview of different journalistic approaches with real world accounts from professionals and advice on best practice, journalists, journalism educators and students will find this book a useful guide to contemporary news coverage of Islam.

Handbook of Reporting and Communication Skills (Revised and Enlarged Edition) V.S. Gupta and Rahul Kumar, 2023-01-01 The book provides insight to a student of journalism and mass communication in understanding the world of a fast changing media landscape. It also provides instructions in the practical aspects of journalism: writing, reporting, editing, taking an interview for the mainstream media, as well as writing for technical publications. The book will acquaint a reader with the newsroom, how journalists run a newspaper, gather news, edit and design the pages, and finally put the edition to bed. It will tell the reader all about magazines working in a magazine niche, magazines and how these are coping with the onslaught of 24 hour news beamed through television channels and the internet. With advancement in communications technology and convergence with media, the reader also gets an understanding of how the social media platforms and the smartphone have changed the nature of news. The book talks about the fake news, misleading news, and the increasing pressure on mainstream journalists to combat misinformation. On the other hand, we have news organisations establishing fact checking departments and even concerned individuals spending time to ensure that the media and social media platforms remain free of fake news and misleading forwards.
