Text: "I Have a Dream" by Martin Luther King Junior.

Introduction: Martin Luther King Jr. gave an "I Have a Dream" speech during the 1963 March on Washington. It is a powerful and known sample of persuasive language. In fact, Luther makes a strong case for civil rights by skillfully using ethos, pathos, and logos to appeal to the feeling of justice and equality in his target group.

Description: Based on this sample rhetorical analysis essay, here is a short description for the same and that is Principles: King used historical texts like the Proclamation of Freedom and the Articles of Independence to support his position of power. Hence, he portrays himself as an informed, reliable leader who is sensitive to the challenges and goals faced by African Americans.

Passion: Besides, the leader uses some emotions that can be seen in his rich language and vivid imagery. Despite the hardships faced by African Americans, he offers a positive vision of a time when individuals will be judged on the content of their character rather than the colour of their skin. His delivery of the line "I have a dream" with passion and repetition creates powerful feelings in the audience.

Logos: Luther highlights the gaps between American values and the reality of racial and ethnic prejudice while providing logical justification for his claims. Hence, he makes the case for the importance of significant and quick change using logical reasoning and concrete proof.

Summary: To sum up, the rhetorical essay sample on the "I Have a Dream" speech by Martin Luther King Jr. is one of the outstanding rhetorical analysis examples of effective appeal. He has rightly presented his vision of equality in society by using the technique of symbolism.
