Chapter outlines providing overview of each topic. Treatment protocols reflecting the most recent advances in the field. Step by step review of the neurologic examination.

Does an Apple a Day Keep the Doctor Away? Sandy Donovan, 2017-08-01 An apple a day keeps the doctor away. Humans use only ten percent of their brains. If you cross your eyes they'll stay that way. You may have heard these common sayings and beliefs before. But are they really true? Can they be proven using science? Let's investigate seventeen health related statements and find out which ones are right, which ones are wrong, and which ones still stump scientists. Find out if the five second rule for dropping food on the floor is true. Discover if eating chocolate can give you pimples. See if you can tell the difference between fact and fiction with Is That a Fact?

Human Biology Sylvia S. Mader, 2000 This best selling text emphasizes the relationship between humans and other living things. Intended for an introductory course, this text provides students with a firm grasp of how their bodies function and how the human population can become more fully integrated into the biosphere. An Online Learning Center tied directly to the text via icons will direct students to activities or animations that give a visual example of difficult processes as well as Working Together boxes to emphasize homeostasis.
