Defense Mechanisms Uwe Hentschel, Gudmund Smith, Juris G Draguns, Wolfram Ehlers, 2004-06-12 The book is focused on defense mechanisms as theoretical constructs as well as the possibilities of their empirical registration by different methods and the application of these constructs in different fields of psychology with special regard to concurrent and predictive validity It is argued that defense mechanisms are in many ways to be seen as integrative constructs not necessarily restricted to psychoanalytic theory and that the potential fields of their application have a wide ranging scope comprising many fields of psychology Consequently empirical studies are presented from the fields of clinical and personality psychology psychotherapy research and psychosomatic phenomena and diseases Methodological questions have a heavy weight in most of these studies Provides coverage of relevant literature Covers different fields of application Attempts an integration of the construct of defense mechanisms into mainstream psychology Provides explanations of the theoretical basis of the construct of defense mechanisms

Ego Mechanisms of Defense George E. Vaillant, 1992 Not since Anna Freud's 1937 book The Ego and the Mechanisms of Defense has any one volume explored this topic as fully as Ego Mechanisms of Defense by George E Vaillant By summarizing the latest empirical studies proposing a universal language of defense mechanisms and demonstrating how various assessment methods can be used in diagnosis case formulation and treatment Dr Vaillant and an interdisciplinary group of contributors provide the groundwork for clinical practice as well as future research in the field

CRIMINAL INTERROGATION Warren D. Holmes, 2002-01-01 Author Holmes is well qualified to write a book on the subject of criminal interrogation and has lectured about it in many organizations including the FBI CIA the Secret Service the Canadian Police College and the Singapore Police Department He has also conducted polygraph examinations in such nationally known cases as the assassination of President John F Kennedy the murder of Dr Martin Luther King Jr and Watergate Drawing on current knowledge and his own extensive experience the author provides a thorough overview of the techniques and procedures of interrogation The main purpose of this book is that it will give you the tools to combat the criminal suspect and to attain the most satisfying outcome of criminal investigation obtaining a confession through astute interrogation Ideally to learn how to interrogate one should be exposed to talented interrogators in action Any book about criminal interrogation can never be a complete substitute for the daily or weekly experience of interrogating criminal suspects Recognizing this fact it is the author's plan to write a how to book that provides a framework for enhancing one's personal experience It will help guide the interrogator through the inherent difficulty that is manifested by the margin of error in perceiving guilt or innocence as well as in the length of time it takes an average person to become sufficiently experienced to reach an acceptable degree of proficiency The scope of this book includes a step by step procedure for interrogation from the moment the suspect enters the interrogation room to the time he leaves It will also help interrogators to keep from running out of things to say to a suspect by providing suggested interrogational arguments for specific crimes Sex crimes murder cases espionage cases and miscellaneous crimes are explored with various suggested arguments to be employed while handling these different types of cases The three types of closure the handling of the confession and the formal confession as court evidence are discussed in detail which also includes the interrogation of the accomplice and the potential witness By reading this book you will learn how to obtain confessions not by asking the suspect questions but by convincing a suspect to confess by using persuasive interrogational arguments Study Guide for Psychology in Everyday Life David G.
