John Warwick Montgomery, 2020-10-27 John Warwick Montgomery is considered to be one of the foremost living apologists for classical biblical Christianity. A renaissance scholar with a flair for controversy, he lives in France, England, and the United States. His international activities have brought him into personal contact with some of the most exciting events of our time: not only was he in China in June 1989, but he was in Fiji during its 1987 bloodless revolution, was involved in assisting East Germans to escape during the time of the Berlin Wall, and was in Paris during the revolutionary days of May 1968. He has had personal contact with world leaders such as President Anwar Sadat of Egypt and English Prime Minister Tony Blair. He has been centrally involved in evangelical and Lutheran church affairs such as the Wenham conference on the authority of Scripture and the inerrancy controversies in the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod. His public debates with atheist Madalyn Murray O'Hair, Bishop James Pike, death of God advocate Thomas Altizer, and situation ethicist Joseph Fletcher are historic. His wife is the internationally celebrated orchestral harpist Lanalee de Kant. Dr. Montgomery is the author or editor of more than fifty books in five languages. He holds ten earned degrees, including a Master of Philosophy in Law from the University of Essex, England; a Ph.D. from the University of Chicago; a Doctorate of the University in Protestant Theology from the University of Strasbourg, France; and the higher doctorate in law LL.D. from the University of Cardiff, Wales. He is an ordained Lutheran clergyman, an English barrister, an avocat au Barreau de Paris, France, and is admitted to practise as a lawyer before the Supreme Court of the United States. He obtained acquittals for the Athens 3 missionaries on charges of proselytism at the Greek Court of Appeals in 1986 and won the leading religious liberty cases of Larissis v. Greece and Bessarabian Orthodox Church v. Moldova before the European Court of Human Rights. Professor Montgomery's autobiography offers an opportunity for the reader to meet one of the most fascinating figures in the contemporary church, to understand how he attained his influence in so many diverse areas of modern life, and to comprehend the Christ-centered philosophy of life that has motivated all of his activities. This autobiography manifests the author's willingness to speak frankly about those with whom he has agreed and disagreed, and is lightened with his well-known sense of humour. Readers have a remarkable and unique treat in store for them.

The Real James Herriot James Wight, 2011-04-27 No one is better poised to write the biography of James Herriot than the son who worked alongside him in the Yorkshire veterinary practice when Herriot became an internationally bestselling author Now in this warm and poignant memoir Jim Wight talks about his father the beloved veterinarian whom his family had to share with half the world Alf Wight aka James Herriot grew up in Glasgow where he lived during a happy rough and tumble childhood and then through the challenging years of training at the Glasgow Veterinary College The story of how the young vet later traveled to the small Yorkshire town of Thirsk aka Darrowby to take the job of assistant vet is one that is well known through James Herriot's internationally celebrated books and the popular All Creatures Great and Small television series. With access to all of his father's papers, correspondence, manuscripts, and photographs, and intimate remembrances of all the farmers, locals, and friends who populate the James Herriot books, only Jim Wight could write this definitive biography of the man who was not only his father but his best friend. Canals of Britain Stuart Fisher, 2023-01-19 Canals of Britain is the most comprehensive and absorbing survey of Britain's canal network ever published. It provides a fascinating insight into the linked-up waterways as well as the isolated cuts and quiet waters which may not be fully navigable by larger craft. Infinitely varied, it passes picturesque open countryside, wild moorland, coastal harbours, historic industrial buildings, modern city centres, canalside public houses, and abundant wildlife. Stuart Fisher looks at every aspect of the canals: their construction, rich history, stunning scenery, heritage, incredible engineering, impressive architecture, and even their associated folklore, wildlife, and art. Enticing photographs give a flavour of each place, and places of interest close to the canals are included. Each canal is intricately mapped. For those who are keen to explore that little bit further, the book goes to points beyond which others usually turn back, with information on little-known parts of the system, offering a new insight into this country's unique, surprising, and beautiful canal network. Attractive, inspiring, and also a practical guide, The Canals of Britain has proved very popular with walkers, cyclists, narrowboaters, canoeists, kayakers, and others wanting to get the most out of Britain's canals. This fourth edition has been thoroughly revised to reflect the ever-changing landscape of Britain's canals and includes many new colour photographs to help bring them to life.

Beyond Pug's Tour, 2022-06-08 At a time when the world, Europe especially, is once more threatened by murderous conflicts between groups of people claiming ethnic and national identity as a basis for sovereignty over specific territories, it is timely to consider the part that literature has played and is playing in the creation of ethnic and national stereotypes. What role do such stereotypes have in literature? How are they created? From what materials are they constructed? What purpose do ethnic and national stereotypes serve? Can it ever be a useful one? Are they avoidable? Can we live without them? What can be done about the deleterious effects they may be thought to produce? Stereotyping is worldwide: is there a tribe, race, and nation in existence which escapes being stereotyped by its neighbours? In what sense are these stereotypes accurate? How are these stereotypes reflected in and reinforced by literature? Should and can literature do anything about them? In Beyond Pug's Tour, National and Ethnic Stereotyping in Theory and Literary Practice, literary scholars as well as academics engaged in sociological and psychological research consider these and other questions by examining the work of specific authors and the circumstances in which stereotyping plays such a crucial part.
