Jail Without Walls:

Children of Cambodia's Killing Fields Kim DePaul, 1999-01-01 Publisher Fact Sheet This extraordinary collection of eyewitness accounts by Cambodian survivors of Pol Pot's genocidal Khmer Rouge regime in the 1970s offers searing testimony to an era of brutality brainwashing betrayals starvation gruesome executions

Life without Walls Cynthia Jones, 2023-07-12 Life without walls to me is life being preplanned and we have a path to walk so when we walk off that plan the path becomes discomposed Uncertainty dismay and confusion come our way Regardless of your circumstances or situation prayer determination and having faith in your own capabilities can change the outcome I never stopped believing in my God and I never gave up no matter what people said about me or to me I never had the support of my family It would have meant the world to me to know that someone cared about what was happening to me Instead I had to rely on fake friends and associates for self confirmation not knowing that I didn't need anyone to confirm what I already felt in my heart After being physically and mentally abused by my husband I had to dig deep down inside my soul to build up the courage to become independent of the power that I had given him for him to control my life Love does not scare you for life Love does not take your self esteem and belittle you as a person I had to look in the mirror at myself and my kids and say You matter you've got so much to live for and muster up the courage to leave Neither my childhood past relationships disappointments failed marriages abuse nor life without walls can stop me from accomplishing my dreams

Words without Walls Sheryl St. Germain, Sarah Shotland, 2015-03-10 Writing programs in prisons and rehabilitation centers have proven time and again to be transformative and empowering for people in need Halfway houses hospitals and shelters are all fertile ground for healing through the imagination and can often mean the difference for inmates and patients between just simply surviving and truly thriving It is in these settings that teachers and their students need reading that nourishes the soul and challenges the spirit Words without Walls is a collection of more than seventy five poems essays stories and scripts by contemporary writers that provide models for successful writing offering voices and styles that will inspire students in alternative spaces on their own creative exploration Created by the founders of the award winning program of the same name based at Chatham University the anthology strives to challenge readers to reach beyond their own circumstances and begin to write from the heart Each selection expresses immediacy writing that captures the imagination and conveys intimacy on the page revealing the power of words to cut to the quick and unfold the truth Many of the pieces are brief allowing for reading and discussion in the classroom and provide a wide range of content and genre touching on themes common to communities in need addiction and alcoholism family love and sex pain and hope prison recovery and violence Included is work by writers dealing with shared issues such as Dorothy Alison and Jesmyn Ward who write about families for whom struggle is a way of life or Natalie Kenvin and Toi Derricotte whose pieces reveal violence against women Also included are writings by those who have spent time in prison themselves such as Jimmy Santiago Baca Dwayne Betts Ken Lamberton and Etheridge Knight Eric Boyd ennobles the day he was released from jail Stephon Hayes reflects on what he sees from his prison window Terra Lynn evokes the experience of being put in solitary confinement Because in 2011 almost half of all prisoners in federal facilities were in for drug related offenses there are pieces by James Brown Nick Flynn and Ann Marlowe who explore their own addiction and alcoholism and by Natalie Diaz Scott Russell Sanders and Christine Stroud who write of crippling drug abuse by family and friends These powerful excerpts act as models for beginning writers and offer a vehicle to examine their own painful experiences Words without Walls demonstrates the power of language to connect people to reflect on the past and reimagine the future to confront complicated truths and to gain solace from pain and regret For students in alternative spaces these writings together with their own expressions reveal the same intense desire to write and share one s writing found in the Russian poet Irina Ratushinskaya who scratched her poems on bars of soap in a Gulag shower or the Turkish poet Nazim Hikmet who smuggled bits of poetry out of jail in the clothing of visiting friends Wole Soyinka in solitary confinement forty years ago wrote that creation is admission of great loneliness In these communal spaces our loneliness is lessened our vulnerability exposed and our honesty tested and through these revelatory writings students receive the necessary encouragement to share the whispering corners of their minds Alive in the Killing Fields Nawuth Keat,Martha E. Kendall,2009 The gripping story of a young boy who survived the atrocities in Cambodia under the Khmer Rouge and escaped to the United States whispering tree James Millhouse,2022-10-14 He found her then lost her in a crowd of thousands Now how does this lovelorn eighteen year old guy find the hippie flower child dream come true That s the question for a fugitive draft dodger hiding out among the masses drawn to San Francisco during the 1967 Summer of Love a dynamic social experiment toward a utopian society where free love sex drugs and rock and roll reign He must look for Chelsea Morning with federal authorities in hot pursuit Their determination to capture him following his attempt to contact her via a series of televised interviews creates a firestorm of media exploitation with him in the center of it all Can he be reunited with the woman of his dreams Soviet Life ,1975 Success ,1924 Retrospective Juan Gabriel Vasquez,2024-05-07 An epic yet intimate novel about a Colombian man caught up in the sweep of global historical and ideological revolutions The Colombian film director Sergio Cabrera is in Barcelona for a retrospective of his work It s a hard time for him his father famous actor Fausto Cabrera has just died his marriage is in crisis and his home country has rejected peace agreements that might have ended more than fifty years of war In the course of a few intense days as his films are on exhibit Sergio recalls the events that marked his family s unusual and dramatic lives especially his father s his sister Marianella s and his own Growing up in Colombia as the children of famous actors Sergio and Marianella were privileged and artistic until their parents became disillusioned with bourgeois conventions and moved the entire family to China Mao s Cultural Revolution was underway and the family lived in an entirely ex pat hotel where they learned Chinese and joined the revolution became members of the Red Guard and trained as guerilla fighters When they returned to Colombia to support the revolution there they were sent into the countryside to join the guerilla force were shot at and nearly died Out of these lives molded by ideology and zealotry came an artistic second life for Sergio as he escaped the movement and became his country s most celebrated film director From the Spanish Civil War to the exile of his family to Latin America and from the Cultural Revolution in China to the guerrilla movements of 1960s Colombia Sergio and his family s experience is extraordinary by any standards Equal parts family saga and epic historical novel Retrospective reveals the story of one man and his family based on real people and events and a devastating portrait of the forces that shaped their lives and for half a century turned the world upside down

Understanding E-Carceration James Kilgore,2022-01-18 A riveting primer on the growing trend of surveillance monitoring and control that is extending our prison system beyond physical walls and into a dark future by the prize winning author of Understanding Mass Incarceration James Kilgore is one of my favorite commentators regarding the phenomenon of mass incarceration and the necessity of pursuing truly transformative change Michelle Alexander author of The New Jim Crow In the last decade as the critique of mass incarceration has grown more powerful many reformers have embraced changes that release people from prisons and jails As educator author and activist James Kilgore brilliantly shows these rapidly spreading reforms largely fall under the heading of e carceration a range of punitive technological interventions from ankle monitors to facial recognition apps that deprive people of their liberty all in the name of ending mass incarceration E carceration can block people s access to employment housing healthcare and even the chance to spend time with loved ones Many of these technologies gather data that lands in corporate and government databases and may lead to further punishment or the marketing of their data to Big Tech This riveting primer on the world of techno punishment comes from the author of award winning Understanding Mass Incarceration Himself a survivor of prison and e carceration Kilgore captures the breadth and complexity of these technologies and offers inspiring ideas on how to resist

When Life Is Not Perfect, When Prisonment Is Innocent Curtis E. Crawford,2004-10 Eric Diller s book represents a personal experience of what a combat infantryman must endure to survive It also serves to honor his comrades those dead and those alive His children and grandchildren will better understand what WWII veterans achieved to insure their freedom It further demonstrates the love Mr Diller has for his family and his country

The Crisis of the Indian Legal System.
