James Tiptree Jr The Double Life Of Alice B Sheldon:

James Tiptree, Jr. Julie Phillips, 2015-01-06 Phillips's superb depiction of the woman behind the persona of science fiction writer James Tiptree is an extraordinary achievement. Kirkus Reviews starred review. A New York Times Book Review Notable Book of the Year. A Washington Post Book World Best Book of the Year. One of Entertainment Weekly's 10 Best Nonfiction Books of the Year. Alice Bradley Sheldon was born in Chicago in 1915. As a child she crossed Africa with her explorer parents. Later she became a painter, a CIA agent, a psychologist, and at age fifty one made yet another career change. James Tiptree Jr appeared on the science fiction scene in 1967. His stories were fast paced and hard boiled, his letters frank and sensitive. For nearly ten years he carried on intimate correspondences with fellow writers Philip K Dick, Harlan Ellison, and Ursula K Le Guin. But no one knew who he really was. Then assumptions about writing and gender were demolished when he was revealed to be Alice B Sheldon. Based on extensive research and full access to Sheldon's papers, James Tiptree Jr is the suspenseful engrossing and tragic biography of a profoundly original writer and woman far ahead of her time. An incredible life done elegant justice. Tiptree Sheldon is one of the century's astonishing figures. Jonathan Lethem, bestselling author of The Fortress of Solitude. Fascinating. May make you rethink your ideas about what it means to be male or female or for that matter human. Francine Prose. O The Oprah Magazine. The meticulous emotionally intelligent biography of an extraordinary writer. William Gibson. Her Smoke Rose Up Forever James Tiptree, 2004. These 18 darkly complex short stories and novellas touch upon human nature and perception, metaphysics and epistemology, and gender and sexuality, foreshadowing a world in which biological tendencies bring about the downfall of humankind. Revisions from the author's notes are included, allowing a deeper view into her world and a better understanding of her work. The Nebula Award winning short story Love Is the Plan, the Plan Is Death, the Hugo Award winning novella The Girl Who Was Plugged In, and the Hugo and Nebula Award winning novella Houston, Houston, Do You Read? are included. James Tiptree, Jr. Julie Phillips, 2007-06-12. Tiptree burst onto the science fiction scene in the 1970s with hard edged provocative short stories. Then the cover was blown: the author was actually a 61 year old woman named Alice Sheldon, world traveler, debutante, chicken farmer, CIA agent, and experimental psychologist. Lesbian Potentiality and Feminist Media in the 1970s Jed Samer, 2022-02-04. In Lesbian Potentiality and Feminist Media in the 1970s Jed Samer explores how 1970s feminists took up the figure of the lesbian in broad attempts to reimagine gender and sexuality. Samer turns to feminist film, video, and science fiction literature, offering a historiographical concept called lesbian potentiality, a way of thinking beyond what the lesbian was in favor of how the lesbian signified what could have come to be. Samer shows how the labor of feminist media workers and fans put lesbian potentiality into movement. They see lesbian potentiality in feminist prison documentaries that theorize the prison industrial complex's racialized and gendered violence and give image to Black feminist love politics and freedom dreaming. Lesbian potentiality also circulates through the alternative spaces created by feminist science fiction and fantasy fanzines like The Witch and the Chameleon and

Janus It was here that author James Tiptree Jr Alice B Sheldon felt free to do gender differently and inspired many others to do so in turn Throughout Samer embraces the perpetual reimagination of lesbian and the lesbian s former futures for the sake of continued radical world building

Prophets of the Posthuman Christina Bieber Lake, 2013-09-30 Prophets of the Posthuman provides a fresh and original reading of fictional narratives that raise the question of what it means to be human in the face of rapidly developing bioenhancement technologies Christina Bieber Lake argues that works by Nathaniel Hawthorne Walker Percy Flannery O Connor Toni Morrison George Saunders Marilynne Robinson Raymond Carver James Tiptree Jr and Margaret Atwood must be reevaluated in light of their contributions to larger ethical questions Drawing on a wide range of sources in philosophical and theological ethics Lake claims that these writers share a commitment to maintaining a category of personhood more meaningful than that allowed by utilitarian ethics Prophets of the Posthuman insists that because technology can never ask whether we should do something that we have the power to do literature must step into that role Each of the chapters of this interdisciplinary study sets up a typical ethical scenario regarding human enhancement technology and then illustrates how a work of fiction uniquely speaks to that scenario exposing a realm of human motivations that might otherwise be overlooked or simplified Through the vision of the writers she discusses Lake uncovers a deep critique of the ascendancy of personal autonomy as America's most cherished value This ascendancy coupled with technology's glamorous promises of happiness helps to shape a utilitarian view of persons that makes responsible ethical behavior toward one another almost impossible Prophets of the Posthuman charts the essential role that literature must play in the continuing conversation of what it means to be human in a posthuman world
