Know it All, Find it Fast for Youth Librarians and Teachers Christine Donnelly, 2012 A brand new version of the best selling enquiry desk reference text Know it All Find it Fast specifically designed for those working with children and young people in schools, public libraries and at home. Including an invaluable overview of the education system and the school curriculum as well as a comprehensive listing of useful resources by topic, this A-Z covers school subjects from science and maths to reading and literacy and more general themes such as children's health, wellbeing and hobbies. Each topic is broken down into useful sections that will help to guide your response. Typical questions outline common queries such as 'Have you got any information about volcanoes?' Considerations provides useful hints and tips, i.e. Geography now encompasses not only physical and human geography but also environmental geography, social geography, geology and geopolitics. Where to look lists relevant printed, digital and online resources with useful annotations explaining their scope and strengths. Readership: This is the must have quick reference tool arming librarians and teachers with the knowledge to deal with any queries thrown at them from children and young people as well as their parents and caregivers. It will also be a handy reference for parents and anyone working with children and young people in other organizations such as homework clubs and youth workers.

Sowing the Seeds of Character Judd Kruger, Levingston, 2009-06-08 A rabbi and educator shows how moral education can be crafted to address each of the three main branches of the moral life: philosophy, civics and ethics. Sowing the Seeds of Character: The Moral Education of Adolescents in Public and Private Schools is a book for all teachers and parents. It rests on the premise that the moral education of students falls within the purview of schools whether they assume responsibility for it or not Regardless of the place of moral education in the formal curriculum all teachers serve as moral exemplars to their students for good or for ill Teachers of science social studies history and literature courses cannot help but inculcate moral sensibility and attitudes in their students by the ways in which they lead them to grapple with or glide over the moral implications of what they teach Judd Kruger Levingston draws many lessons and examples from his extensive research and teaching experience in Muslim Jewish Roman Catholic public Quaker and Chinese schools He argues that teachers should become proficient in directing role playing simulations of moral decision making as morally complex topics arise within the standard curriculum
