Love And Other Uturns:

Love and The Turning Seasons Andrew Schelling, 2014-02-11 For thousands of years India has excelled at erotic love poetry and the genius of its devotional poetry often harnesses great energy and mystical insight It is in fact often hard to tell whether the poets are offering poems of spiritual longing using the garment of love poetry or writing erotic poems in the guise of devotion Perhaps in a country where erotic sculpture routinely ornaments its many temples and the gods are known for their explosive sexuality this question has little meaning to these remarkable writers In their devotional traditions eroticism and mysticism seem inseparable This wonderful selection spans 2 500 years and includes work originally sung or recited by their well known bards Kabir Mirabai Lal Ded Vidyapati and Tagore There are also poems from the Upanishad from ancient Sanskrit poetry and Punjab folk lyrics The poets have largely emerged from the ranks of the dispossessed leather workers refuse collectors maidservants women orphans Their vision is of a democratic society in which all voices count much like American gospel and blues Shaker songs or the grand vision of Walt Whitman Often they faced persecution for speaking candidly or daring to speak of spiritual matters at all The notes include profiles of these legendary lives Several of these poets simply vanished absorbed into a deity or disappeared in a flash of purple lightening A few produced miracles most of them have clouds of mystery around them Andrew Schelling has drawn on the work of 24 other translators including Ezra Pound Robert Bly W S Merwin Jane Hirschfield and Denise Levertov to build what will be the finest anthology of India s erotic and spiritual poetry for the general read ever assembled

About Love and Other Stories Anton Chekhov, 2008-07-10 the greatest short story writer who has ever lived Raymond Carver s unequivocal verdict on Chekhov's genius has been echoed many times by writers as diverse as Katherine Mansfield, Somerset Maugham, John Cheever, and Tobias Wolff. While his popularity as a playwright has sometimes overshadowed his achievements in prose, the importance of Chekhov's stories is now recognized by readers as well as by fellow authors. Their themes of alienation, the absurdity and tragedy of human existence, have as much relevance today as when they were written, and these superb new translations capture their modernist spirit. Elusive and subtle, spare and unadorned, the stories in this selection are among Chekhov's most poignant and lyrical. They include well-known pieces such as The Lady with the Little Dog, as well as less familiar work like Gusev, inspired by Chekhov's travels in the Far East, and Rothschild's Violin, a haunting and darkly humorous tale about death and loss.

Twists and Turns Dr. Ritambhara Richharia,2022-01-31 True love brings happiness Romantic love if true should also bring happiness How can one know what is true love True love has four elements First of all mindful awareness of kindness can offer happiness If a person cannot offer happiness that is not true love In romantic love if you are not able to make the other person happy that is not true love If partners are not able to offer happiness both will suffer The second element of love is compassion Compassion is the kind of energy that can remove suffering If partners cannot transform or take care of their suffering it is not true love So the second element of love Karuna should be contemplated by partners Romantic or not romantic is not important the thing important is whether it is true love or not The third element of true love is joy If partners cry all the time or make the other cry that is not true love romantic or unromantic The fourth element of true love is inclusiveness His suffering is her suffering and his happiness is her happiness and vice versa There is no individual suffering or happiness anymore In true love there is no separation no frontier between partners One can't say that's your problem Problems and suffering belong to each other If romantic love has these four elements it can bring a lot of happiness If romantic love is successful and partners cultivate kindness and compassion very soon their love will be all embracing Only if they are no longer the object of each other's love their love continues to grow and embrace all things around happiness becomes limitless True love grows continuously and will include more and more not only humans but also animals and plants thus creating unlimited moments of joy The author leaves the decision on readers to decide whether the story of Sameer and Shefali is a story of true love or not
