Baughman, 2012-01-19 No detailed description available for Type and Motif Index of the Folktales of England and North America Tales of Meath Deaglán Mac Giolla Cearra, 2023-03-15 Folk tales from County Meath illustrated by Deaglán Mac Giolla Cearra In the late 1930s the Irish Folklore Commission initiated a project to collect the folklore of the nation Schoolchildren were recruited to assist in the task of recording local stories legends and beliefs The result was the Baille na Scol or the Schools Collection compiled from over two million handwritten pages The stories illustrated herein are adaptations of only a few of these stories some will be familiar others not so much But they all remind us of the rich heritage of Irish storytelling Dublin Folk Tales Brendan Nolan, 2011-11-30 Have you heard the story of Bang Bang Dudley who roamed the streets of Dublin shooting anyone who caught his eye Or of Lugs Brannigan the city s most famous detective Do you know who the real Molly Malone was or the story of Marsh s Library or how the devil himself came to the Hellfire Club These and many more accounts of Dubliners and Dublin City fill this book as told by Brendan Nolan a professional storyteller who has been recording these tales for decades These are the stories of real Dublin the stories that are passed from generation to generation and which give this city its unique character To know Dublin is to know these characters these stories and the legends which have grown up around them Woodland Folk Tales of Britain and Ireland Lisa Schneidau, 2020-09-30 Once upon a time most of Britain and Ireland was covered in woodland Many of the trees have been cleared but our connection with the wildwood remains It is a place of danger adventure and transformation where anything could happen Here is a collection of traditional folk tales of oak ash and thorn of hunting forests and rebellion timber and triumph in battle wild ghosts and woodwoses Lisa Schneidau retells some of the old stories and relates them to the trees and forests in the landscape of our islands today A Bibliography of Irish Ethnology and Folk Tradition Kevin Danaher, 1978 Sins of the Father Conor McCabe, 2011-06-01 The questions surrounding how the Irish economy

was brought to the brink who was to blame and who should pay for these mistakes have been rightly debated at length But beyond this very legitimate exercise there are deeper questions that need to be answered These questions relate to why we made the decisions we did not just in the last 10 years but over the last 80 How did certain industries become prominent at the expense of others banking as opposed to fisheries international markets as opposed to indigenous industry and job creation Are our problems structural in nature and most importantly what do we need to know to make sure that this crisis does not happen again These are the questions set by this book It will look at the development of the Irish economy over the past eight decades and will argue that the 2008 financial crisis up to and including the IMF bailout of 2010 and the subsequent change of government cannot be explained simply by the moral failings of those in banking or property development alone The problems are deeper more intricate and more dangerous if we remain unaware of them but also potentially avoidable in the future if we break the cycle
