IJER Vol 1-N3 International Journal of Educational Reform, 1992-07-01 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes Finally it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U S and the world Jsl Vol 5-N3 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 1995-05-01 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Memorandum Rand Corporation, 1968 Memorandum -, 1967 The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights [2 Volume Set] Nat Rubner, 2023 A landmark study of the African Charter on human and peoples rights one of the most important documents in modern African history that positions it within the African Lives Matter struggle to assert an African identity rather than as simply a human rights document This set describes its underlying African origins and how the principles of the OAU influenced its path and content The British Battleship 1906-1946 Norman Friedman, 2015-09-30 The British battleship is one of the most intensely studied of all naval topics but it is also among the most popular Norman Friedman is one of the most highly regarded of all naval writers with an avid following for his work Therefore a new book on British battleships by Friedman is a major event and has been eagerly awaited ever since knowledge of the project began to circulate among enthusiasts Friedman has the ability to bring new ideas to even the most over worked subjects based on extensive original research and a talent for explaining technology in the wider context of politics economics and strategy His latest book covers the development of Royal Navy capital ships including battlecruisers from the pre history of the revolutionary Dreadnought of 1906 to the last of the line HMS Vanguard in 1946 Repleat with original insights the story that emerges will enlighten and surprise even the most knowledgeable The attraction of the book is enhanced by sets of specially commissioned plans of the important classes by John Roberts and A D Baker III both renowned experts in their own right plus a colour section featuring the original Admiralty draughts including a spectacular double gatefold For many with an interest in warships this will be the book of the year

Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1894 Sir Ronald Storrs Christopher Burnham,2024-09-09 This volume utilises the personal papers of Sir Ronald Storrs as well as other archival materials to make a microhistorical investigation of his period as Governor of Jerusalem between 1917 and 1926 It builds upon Edward Said s work on the Orientalist determining imprint by arguing that Storrs took a deeply personal approach to governing the city one determined by his upbringing his education in the English private school system and his service as a British official in Colonial Egypt It recognises the influence of these experiences on Storrs perceptions of and attitudes towards Jerusalem identifying how these formative years manifested themselves on the city and in the Governor s interactions with Jerusalemites of all backgrounds and religious beliefs It also highlights the restrictions placed on Storrs approach by his British superiors Palestinians and the Zionist movement alongside the limitations imposed by his own attitudes and worldview Placing Storrs personality at the centre of discussion on early Mandate Jerusalem exposes a nuanced and complex picture of how personality and politics collided to influence its everyday life and built environment The book is aimed at historians and students of the late Ottoman Empire and British Mandate in Palestine colonialism and imperialism and microhistory

A Very Canadian Coup Ted Glenn,2022-11-08 A fresh take on the Manitoba schools question and the Conservative Coup that toppled Canada s fifth prime minister When Mackenzie Bowell became Canada s fifth prime minister in December 1894 everyone including Bowell expected the job would involve nothing more than keeping the wheels on the Conservative wagon until a spring election Plans for a quiet caretakership were dashed in January 1895 when the courts ruled that the Manitoba government had violated Roman Catholics constitutional rights by abolishing the provincial separate school system Catholics in Quebec demanded that Bowell force Manitoba to restore the schools while Ontario Protestants warned him to keep his hands off Backed into a corner Bowell tried three times to negotiate a compromise with the Manitoba government over the course of 1895 but to no avail By January 1896 seven of Bowell s cabinet ministers had had enough Convinced that Bowell had tarnished the Conservative brand the caballers forced the prime minister to resign and make way for a new leader who they believed could revive party fortunes in time for the coming election the old Warhorse of Cumberland Sir Charles Tupper Ultimately the coup didn t matter Tupper and his conspirators pleaded their case in Parliament and on the hustings but nothing could stand in the way of Wilfrid Laurier and his Liberals historic rise to power in the June 1896 election A Very Canadian Coup brings fresh sources and new perspectives to bear on the life and times of Canada's fifth prime minister and his Sixth Ministry
