

Missing by Reza de Wet

Synopsis

The magical-realist play, Missing, deals with a daughter's escape from her dysfunctional rural family, bringing women who are trapped and scared into the spotlight and examining how far fear can take them.

'Through an exploration of its realistic elements we believe the performances are truthful and sincere. Thank you Stanislavski' — Trienie

'Realism at its best.' — Rushana

Programme Note

This script grabbed me from the outset — the images and words which are conjured up by Reza de Wet immediately appealed to me. The issue of women who are trapped, scared or missing does not apply to one particular community only. It is relevant to most communities in this country and many other countries in the world. So I could make it universal and that is very exciting for me.
