our students. Two students should act as prosecutors while the other two act as defense attorneys. Each pair should prepare an argument for why the suspect is guilty (prosecution) or innocent (defense). Give students 10 minutes to prepare their arguments. Then, have students present their arguments to the class. The class will vote on whether the suspect is guilty or innocent. The class will also vote on whether the prosecution or defense attorneys did a good job of presenting their argument.

Intellectual Property Law for Engineers and Scientists Howard B. Rockman, 2004-07-26. An excellent text for clients to read before meeting with attorneys so they'll understand the fundamentals of patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark, mask work, and unfair competition laws. This is not a do it yourself manual but rather a ready reference tool for inventors or creators that will generate maximum efficiencies in obtaining, preserving, and enforcing their intellectual property rights. It explains why they need to secure the services of IPR attorneys. Coverage includes employment contracts including the ability of engineers to take confidential and secret knowledge to a new job, shop rights, and information to help an entrepreneur establish a non-conflicting enterprise when leaving their prior employment. Sample forms of contracts, contract clauses, and points to consider before signing employment agreements are included. Coverage of copyright, software protection, and the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) as well as the procedural variances in international intellectual property laws and procedures.
