A Nurse Practitioner's Complete Guide to a Successful Medical House Call Practice , The Urban Rail Development Handbook Daniel Pulido, Georges Darido, Ramon Munoz-Raskin, Joanna Moody, 2018-09-20 Cities across the globe are looking to develop affordable environmentally friendly and socially responsible transportation solutions that can meet the accessibility needs of expanding metropolitan populations and support future economic and urban development When appropriately planned and properly implemented as part of a larger public transportation network urban rail systems can provide rapid mobility and vital access to city centers from surrounding districts High performing urban rail services when carefully approached as development projects can help enhance quality of life by giving citizens access to employment opportunities essential services urban amenities and neighboring communities The purpose of this Handbook is to synthesize and disseminate knowledge to inform the planning implementation and operations of urban rail projects with a view towards Emphasizing the need for early studies and project planning Making projects more sustainable economically socially and environmentally Improving socioeconomic returns and access to opportunities for users Maximizing the value of private participation where appropriate and Building capacity within project implementing and managing institutions This Handbook provides experiential advice to tackle the technical institutional and financial challenges faced by decision makers considering urban rail projects It brings together the expertise of World Bank staff and the input of numerous specialists to synthesize international good practices and recommendations that are independent of commercial financial political or other interests The material presented is intended as an honest broker guide to maximize the impact and manage the challenges of urban rail systems in cities in both developed and developing countries Rather than identify a single approach this Handbook acknowledges the complexities and context necessary when approaching an urban rail development by helping to prepare decision makers to ask the right questions consider the key issues perform the necessary studies apply adequate tools and learn from international good practice all at the right time in the project development process The Executive's Guide to 21st Century Corporate Citizenship Dave Stangis, Katherine Valvoda Smith, Boston College, 2017-08-31 The Executive's Guide to 21st Century Corporate Citizenship provides a major update on how to do corporate citizenship showing senior managers how they can win the reputation battle and deliver value to society while creating the most successful business possible in today's competitive landscape Making Transit Fun! Darrin Nordahl, 2012-04-13 Why do people in Stockholm prefer to take the stairs over the escalator Why do Londoners enjoy hanging out at bus stops How do carmakers convince us to buy gas guzzling environmentally damaging and wallet draining machines It's called the fun theory What Darrin Nordahl illustrates in this delightful book is that transit can be just as inviting exciting and even seductive as the automobile if designed with the passenger experience in mind In Making Transit Fun Nordahl shows that with the help of architects urban designers graphic artists industrial engineers marketing experts and even fashion designers we can lure people out of their

automobiles and toward healthier more sustainable methods of transportation This accessible Essential focuses on the possibilities for making public transit cycling and walking more appealing to the motorist In each section Nordahl demonstrates how the transit stigma can be overcome with innovative design From the aesthetics of buses to segregated bike lanes and pedestrian priority streets Nordahl showcases examples from around the world that excite the heart and bring an easy smile

The Routledge Companion to Planning in the Global South Gautam Bhan, Smita Srinivas, Vanessa Watson, 2017-09-11 The Routledge Companion to Planning in the Global South offers an edited collection on planning in parts of the world which more often than not are unrecognised or unmarked in mainstream planning texts In doing so its intention is not to fill a gap that leaves this mainstream unquestioned but to re theorise planning from a deep understanding of place as well as a commitment to recognise the diverse modes of practice that come within it The chapters thus take the form not of generalised universal analyses and prescriptions but instead are critical and located reflections in thinking about how to plan act and intervene in highly complex city regional and national contexts Chapter authors in this Companion are not all planners or are planners of very different kinds and this diversity ensures a rich variety of insights primarily based on cases to emphasise the complexity of the world in which planning is expected to happen The book is divided into a framing Introduction followed by five sections planning and the state economy and economic actors new drivers of urban change landscapes of citizenship and planning pedagogy This volume will be of interest to all those wanting to explore the complexities of planning practice and the need for new theories of knowledge from which to draw insight to face the challenges of the 21st century

Diversified Urbanization Madio Fall, Souleymane Coulibaly, 2016-09-12 Cote d'Ivoire seeks a development strategy to reach middle income status a challenge that would require annual growth rates averaging 10 percent over the next 13 years Global experience of both developed and emerging economies shows that GDP per capita rises with increased urbanization However Cote d'Ivoire's economy is underperforming relative to its level of urbanization The country's urbanization has been negatively correlated with income per capita since the late 1970s and poverty has been increasing Rather than consider development of cities individually successful urbanization plans in Cote d'Ivoire should consider the country's cities as a portfolio of assets each differentiated by characteristics that include size location and density of settlements The authors of Diversified Urbanization The Case of Cote d'Ivoire identify three types of cities on the basis of their contribution to growth and job creation Global Connectors

Regional Connectors along major corridors for regional transport and trade and Domestic Connectors of localization economies for agribusiness Stakeholders from the national government local governments and the private sector have a shared vision for urbanization in the country cities that are planned structured competitive attractive inclusive and organized around development poles To achieve this vision and the goal of middle income status Ivorian policy makers need to act urgently to support diversified urbanization across all city types This book identifies important constraints and opportunities along four dimensions planning connecting greening and financing cities FCC Record United States. Federal Communications Commission,2014 Disrupting Mobility Gereon Meyer,Susan Shaheen,2017-01-04 This book explores the opportunities and challenges of the sharing economy and innovative transportation technologies with regard to urban mobility Written by government experts social scientists technologists and city planners from North America Europe and Australia the papers in this book address the impacts of demographic societal and economic trends and the fundamental changes arising from the increasing automation and connectivity of vehicles smart communication technologies multimodal transit services and urban design The book is based on the Disrupting Mobility Summit held in Cambridge MA USA in November 2015 organized by the City Science Initiative at MIT Media Lab the Transportation Sustainability Research Center at the University of California at Berkeley the LSE Cities at the London School of Economics and Politics and the Innovation Center for Mobility and Societal Change in Berlin Bibliographie française Henri Le Soudier,1896
