Swazo,Abdul-Samad Abdullah ,Nik Rosila Nik Yaakob,Muhammad Mumtaz Ali,Ahmed Elewa,Frank Griffel,Mahan Mirza,Amr G.E. Sabet,Manata Hashemi,Edith Szanto ,Sadek Hamid ,Mohammad Fadel,Sherman A. Jackson,2011-09-07 The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam The Formation of the UAE Kristi Barnwell,2024-04-04 December 2 1971 ushered the United Arab Emirates into existence and marked the end of one hundred fifty years of British protection of the Arab states of the Gulf Today the UAE projects an image of modernity and prosperity but before its formation the emirates endured poverty and political upheaval while the rulers and people navigated the transition from autonomous city states to modern nation states under informal British rule This book shows how the Trucial States came to form a sovereign federation paying particular attention to the role of nationalism and anti imperialism Kristi Barnwell demonstrates that the ruling sheikhs of the Gulf Arab rulers in the Gulf strove to create their new state with close ties to Great Britain which provided technical military and

administrative assistance to the emirates while also publicly embracing the popular ideologies of anti imperialism and Arab socialism that were still dominating the political discourse in the Arab world In the process she situates the Emirates modern history in the broader narratives of the history of the Middle East The research draws on primary source materials from British and American government archives speeches and government publications from the Arab Emirates as well as memoirs and secondary sources

Ahmed Kanna, Amélie Le Renard, Neha Vora, 2020-08-15 Over the nearly two decades that they have each been conducting fieldwork in the Arabian Peninsula Ahmed Kanna Am lie Le Renard and Neha Vora have regularly encountered exoticizing and exceptionalist discourses about the region and its people political systems and prevalent cultural practices These persistent encounters became the springboard for this book a reflection on conducting fieldwork within a field that is marked by such representations The three focus on deconstructing the exceptionalist representations that circulate about the Arabian Peninsula They analyze what exceptionalism does how it is used by various people and how it helps shape power relations in the societies they study They propose ways that this analysis of exceptionalism provides tools for rethinking the concepts that have become commonplace structuring narratives and analytical frameworks within fieldwork in and on the Arabian Peninsula They ask What would not only Middle East studies but studies of postcolonial societies and global capitalism in other parts of the world look like if the Arabian Peninsula was central rather than peripheral or exceptional to ongoing sociohistorical processes and representational practices The authors explore how the exceptionalizing discourses that permeate Arabian Peninsula studies spring from colonialist discourses still operative in anthropology and sociology more generally and suggest that de exceptionalizing the region within their disciplines can offer opportunities for decolonized knowledge production

Everyday Life in the Spectacular City Rana AlMutawa, 2024-01-09 Everyday Life in the Spectacular City is a groundbreaking urban ethnography that reveals how middle class citizens and longtime residents of Dubai interact with the city s so called superficial spaces to create meaningful social lives Rana AlMutawa shows that inhabitants adapt themselves to top down development projects from big malls to megaprojects These structures serve residents evolving social needs transforming Dubai's spectacular spaces into personally important cultural sites These practices are significant because they expand our understanding of agency as not only subversive but also adaptive Through extensive fieldwork AlMutawa herself an Emirati native to Dubai finds a more nuanced story of belonging This story does not seek to uncover the real city that lies beneath the veneer of the spectacle but rather to demonstrate that social meanings and forms of belonging take place within the spectacle itself By offering an alternative to the discourse of authenticity and elucidating the dynamics of ambivalent belonging AlMutawa belies stereotypes that portray Dubai's developments as alienating and inherently disempowering Everyday Life in the Spectacular City speaks beyond the Middle East to a globalized phenomenon for Dubai's spectacles are unexceptional in today's changing world

Participation Culture in the Gulf Nele Lenze, Charlotte Schriwer, 2018-09-03 This book examines the civil social interactions which have shaped and continue to influence the political and social development of modern Gulf societies. It analyses the influence of public and private social spaces such as sports arenas and dawawin as well as developments in the legal and cultural spheres. Geographically the volume covers Bahrain, Iran, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia and the UAE. Each chapter discusses a different aspect of current trends in society, offering a multidimensional perspective on recent developments. In so doing, the chapters highlight the existence of a growing participation culture as a force for dynamic social change in a global context. Bringing to attention the continuing social change in public and private spaces which have increased public social interactions within the last ten years, this book also demonstrates the opening of dialogues between the public and the authorities. The contributors are established scholars living in the Gulf as well as academics with long term field research in the region, thus providing unique perspectives on current sociopolitical trends in the Gulf states.

Participation Culture in the Gulf will be useful to students and scholars of Middle Eastern politics and society as well as social movements and political participation more generally. Aesthetic Cosmopolitanism and Global Culture, 2019-11-11. Gathering scholars from five continents, this edited book displaces the elitist image of cosmopolitanism as well as the blame addressed to aesthetic cosmopolitanism, often considered as merely cosmetic. By considering aesthetic cosmopolitanism as a tool to understand how individuals and social groups appropriate the sphere of culture in a global world, the authors are concerned with its operationalization on two strongly interwoven levels: macro and micro structural and individual. Based on the discussion of theoretical perspectives and empirically grounded research (qualitative and quantitative) conducted in many countries, this volume unveils new insights on tourism and food architecture and museums, TV series and movies, rock, K-pop and samba by providing resources for making sense of aesthetic preferences in a global perspective. Contributors are Felicia Chan, Vincenzo Cicchelli, Talitha Alessandra Ferreira, Paula Iadevito, Sukhmani Khorana, Anne Krebs, Antoinette Kujilaars, Franck Mermier, Sylvie Octobre, Joana Pellerano, Rosario Radakovich, Motti Regev, Viviane Riegel, Clara Rodriguez, Leslie Sklair, Yi Ping, Eva Shi, Claire Thoumelin and Dario Verderame. Nation-Building, State and the Genderframing of Women's Rights in the United Arab Emirates (1971-2009)

Vania Carvalho Pinto, 2022-07-01. In the United Arab Emirates, the extensive change to Emirati women's traditional rights and roles has been one of the most visible transformations taking place throughout the country's 40 years of modern history. This book offers an interpretation of why and how these modifications came about. The book discovers that there is no direct or easy link between the State's offer of rights towards women and society's acceptance of them. Given these circumstances, the mechanisms that induce women to actually take advantage of what is offered have not been given sufficient attention. The concept of genderframing aims precisely at defining the connecting mechanism and explaining the successes and failures of these policies, both mobilization wise and implementation wise. The term genderframing refers to a dynamic and interactive process between the State and its population which entails the symbolic rework of meanings associated with women related policies It is argued that such re interpretation has been purposefully conducted by the Emirati State in order to portray the changing roles of women as necessary and desirable for reasons associated with nation building purposes religious conformity promotion of family values and efforts at indigenous cultural preservation The book highlights the profound intertwining of gender nation building and domestic socio political dynamics in a country that while seeking to establish its modernizing credentials is still struggling for self definition and empowerment
