OECD Territorial Reviews: The Gauteng City-Region, South Africa 2011 OECD,2011-11-10 Against the backdrop of South Africa's achievements since the fall of apartheid this Review evaluates measures to position economic development policy and to confront economic inequality in the Johannesburg Pretoria region Spatial trends in Gauteng Richard Ballard,Christian Hamann,Ngaka Mosiane,2021-12-20 This Occasional Paper examines six spatial trends in Gauteng urban sprawl uneven densification residential building growth the reproduction of a property affordability gradient socio economic segregation and the reproduction of a mismatch between residential and economic areas These spatial trends are the physical manifestation of a remarkable variety of actors responding to a wide variety of opportunities incentives and disincentives and they have important implications for spatial transformation While it might be possible to name post apartheid urban ideals these six spatial trends underscore the disbursed nature of the energies producing urban space and the need to understand and work with these energies in directing spatial transformation Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen,2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it's double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt Monitoring Child Socio-economic Rights in South Africa Erika Coetzee,Judith Streak,2004 Links the government's efforts to realise children's basic socio economic rights to its legal obligations to do so thereby aiming to contribute to eradicating child poverty in South Africa and ensuring children live the quality of life they are entitled to X-kit FET Grade 12 Business Studies Caryl Greyling,2007 A Future South Africa Hendrik Jacobus Kotzé,1997 South Africa Reborn: Building A New Democracy Dr Heather Deegan,Heather Deegan,2005-08-04 The political changes in South Africa have led to the country being viewed as a standard bearer for democracy within the African continent and a beacon for democratic reform globally In this book Heather Deegan looks at political reform in South Africa within a broad framework of global patterns of democratization Her account is rooted in modern literature on democracy and democratization and it is illuminated by interviews carried out at local and national level among members of the ANC the Inkatha Freedom Party the National Party various women s organizations labour and economic groups traditional ethnic organizations township representatives and religious groups Democracy South Africa Yvonne G. Muthien,1999 The 1999 election presented the HSRC with a number of opportunities for conducting election studies These included measuring the shift in public perceptions and support in the run up to the election and conducting the first ever exit poll Building a Capable State Ian Palmer,Nishendra Moodley,Susan Parnell,2017-11-15 The sustainable development goals signed in 2016 marked a new phase in global development thinking one which is focused on ecologically and fiscally sustainable human settlements Few countries offer a better testing ground for their attainment than post apartheid South Africa Since the coming to power of the African National Congress the country has undergone a policy making revolution driven by an urgent need to improve access to services for the country s black majority A quarter century on from the fall of apartheid Building a Capable State asks what lessons can be learned from the South African experience The book assesses whether the South African government has succeeded in improving service delivery focusing on the vital sectors of water and sanitation energy roads public transport and housing Emphasizing the often overlooked role of local government institutions and finance the book demonstrates that effective service delivery can have a profound impact on the social structure of emerging economies and must form an integral part of any future development strategy A comprehensive examination of urban service delivery in the global South Building a Capable State is essential reading for students and practitioners across the social sciences public finance and engineering sectors Sustainable Manufacturing? Simon Roberts,2006 Intended for academics and students in the fields of economic development sociology and economic geography both in South Africa and internationally This work is also useful for the Development Studies Development Economics African Studies and Geography departments in universities in Europe and North America
