Ignorance Unmasked Robert N. Proctor, Londa Schiebinger, 2025-09-16 We live in an age of ignorance This book offers a guide to how we got here and how we might escape From obfuscations of climate science to the myriad deceptions inhering in language Ignorance Unmasked explores how agnotology the study of ignorance can help us better grasp Why don't we know what we don't know What are the obstacles to knowledge and how might those be overcome Ignorance has countless agents and authors it gets deliberately manufactured and widely disseminated In a provocative set of essays this book engages climate change and public health algorithmic amplification of misinformation deep fakes and data obsolescence the origins of free market fundamentalism and gun industry deceptions along with the ignorance produced by military trauma sugar and meat agnotology environmental malfeasance and the forgetting of the Nakba It helps us better understand how and why knowledge gets erased and how rectifying such ignorance can enlarge human liberties and planetary health Contributors Nadia Abu El Haj Daniel Akselrad Erik M Conway John Donohue Hany Farid Benjamin Franta Peter Galison

Jennifer Jacquet Caroline A Jones Robert Lustig Naomi Oreskes Robert N Proctor Rosemary Sayigh Londa Schiebinger and Nanna Bonde Thylstrup Smarter Crime Control Irvin Waller, 2013-12-05 The U S is the world s biggest jailer and one of the most affluent murderous countries and yet its citizens pay more taxes to sustain law and order than their European counterparts Yet the U S has the most data in the world on the use of incarceration and its failure Its researchers have identified more projects able to prevent violence than the rest of the world put together Its legislators have access to pioneering data banks on cost effective ways to use taxes to reduce crime We are left wondering why we cannot implement measures that we know will work reduce crime and cost less for law and order Smarter Crime Control shows how to use recent knowledge and best practices to reduce the extraordinarily high rates of murder traffic fatalities drug overdoses and incarceration while avoiding the high taxes paid by families for policing and prisons Providing detailed examples Irvin Waller offers specific actions our leaders at all levels can take to reduce violence and lower costs to taxpayers He focuses on how to retool policing and improve corrections to reduce reoffending and crime while limiting criminal courts He also shows how programs and investments in various strategies can help those youth on the path to chronic offending avoid the path all together Waller shows how to get smart on crime to shift the criminal justice paradigm from the failing outdated racially biased and exorbitant complex today to an effective modern fair and lean system for safer communities that spares so many victims from the loss and pain of preventable violence He makes a compelling case for reinvesting what is currently misspent on reacting to crime into smart ways to prevent crime Ultimately he demonstrates to readers the importance of reevaluating our current system and putting into place proven strategies for crime and violence prevention that will keep people out of jail and make our streets and communities safer for everyone NIJ Annual Report National Institute of Justice (U.S.), 2002

Small Arms Survey 2008 Small Arms Survey, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (Geneva, Switzerland), 2008-07-31 The Small Arms Survey 2008 examines the problem of diversion and analyses the public health approach to armed violence Children, Youth, and Gun Violence , 2002 Guns in America Donald J. Campbell, 2021-08-09 This work provides readers with an authoritative resource for understanding the true extent and nature of gun violence in America examining the veracity of claims and counterclaims about mass shootings gun laws and public attitudes about gun control This work is part of a series that uses evidence based documentation to examine the veracity of claims and beliefs about high profile issues in American culture and politics Each book in the Contemporary Debates series is intended to puncture rather than perpetuate myths that diminish our understanding of important policies and positions to provide needed context for misleading statements and claims and to confirm the factual accuracy of other assertions This particular volume examines beliefs claims and myths about gun violence gun laws and gun rights in the United States Issues covered in the book include trends in firearm violence mass shootings the impact of gun ownership on rates and types of crime regulations and Supreme Court decisions regarding gun control and the Second Amendment and the activities and influence

Bellwether David J. Toscano, 2022-05-15 Throughout the early years of the 20th century Virginia was viewed as a Republican state Citizens in the Commonwealth had not voted for a Democratic presidential candidate since 1964 In 2000 the GOP had just won the governor s race held both U S Senate seats and had majorities in both the House of Delegates and the State Senate By 2020 all of that had been reversed During that period Democrats won four of five governors contests elected two US senators and voted for Democratic presidential candidates in every year since 2008 In 2019 the House of Delegates where Republicans maintained a 68 32 supermajority in 2011 flipped to Democratic control With it the state became a Democratic trifecta where the party controlled all of the state s levers of power Bellwether tells the story of how this happened from someone who was in the room at the time David Toscano began his service in the House in 2006 and became the Democratic Leader of the body in 2011 He examines the special nature of Virginia politics the demographic changes that underpin much of its shifting political fortunes and the policies and personalities at the center of the state s dynamics for the last two decades

Nowhere Near the Line Elizabeth H. Boquet, 2016-10-17 When I was starting College Presidents for Gun Safety one of the concerns I heard was the idea that there were just too many issues on which to articulate an opinion Where would it stop Where would we draw the line In light of this latest tragedy on a college campus that could have been any of ours I would say We are nowhere near the line yet Lawrence Schall quoted in Tragedy at Umpqua by Paul Fain Inside Higher Ed October 2 2015 In this short work Elizabeth Boquet explores the line Lawrence Schall describes above tracing the overlaps and intersections of a lifelong education around guns and violence as a student a teacher a feminist a daughter a wife a citizen and across the dislocations and relocations that are part of a life lived in and around school Weaving narratives of family the university classroom and administration her husband s work as a police officer and her work with students and the Poetry for Peace effort that her writing center sponsors in the local schools she recounts her efforts to respond to moments of violence with a pedagogy of peace Can we not acknowledge that our experiences with pain anywhere should render us more not less capable of responding to it everywhere she asks Compassion it seems to me is an infinitely renewable resource
