Ever After Duet Liz Czukas, 2022-05-17 Ever She's the girl next door my best friend and all I want If only I could figure out how to tell her Ever since my dad took a job in Washington D C I'm used to picking up the slack around the house Between school taking care of my four sisters and diving practice I'm a master at handling whatever life throws at me Except when it comes to the girl next door Gwen has been my best friend ever since kindergarten She's the jelly to my peanut butter the frosting to my cake She's there for me like no one else The keeper of my secrets Except there's one secret I can't figure out how to share I'm hopelessly in love with her And secrets have a nasty way of multiplying Just when I need my best friend the most another guy asks me for advice on how to win Gwen's heart How much can one person really handle After I had my happily ever but what actually happens after Falling in love with my best friend was pretty much the best idea I ever had Being with Sam makes everything better Now all we have to do is get into the same college and the future will be brighter than the sun Then everything went supernova A missed period and a positive pregnancy test Suddenly the clock is ticking on the future Every possible decision feels wrong All I want is a way out For someone anyone to take this choice away from me But when fate takes choice out of the equation I feel like I've been shredded in pieces I don't know what to feel or who to turn to The only person who might understand is Sam But I've never felt further away from the person I love the most How do you rebuild when you find yourself standing in ruins

My Tongue is My Own: A Life of Gwen Harwood Ann-Marie Priest, 2020-11-17 A masterful portrait of a major Australian writer her incandescent poetry and her battles to be heard in a male dominated literary establishment Winner of the 2023 National Biography Award The first biography of Gwen Harwood 1920-1995 one of Australia's most significant and distinctive poets Harwood is renowned for her brilliance but loved for her humour rebellion and mischief A public figure by the end of her life she was always deeply protective of her privacy and even now some twenty six years after her death little is known of the experiences that gave rise to her extraordinary poems This book follows Harwood from her childhood in 1920s Brisbane to her final years in Hobart in the 1990s It traces how a lively sardonic and determined young woman built a career in the conservative 1950s blasting her way into the patriarchal strongholds of Australian poetry Harwood refused to be bound by convention liberating herself to use her word before women's lib existed Yet she also struggled for much of her life to combine marriage and motherhood with her creative ambitions In this sense she is a twentieth century everywoman She is also a unique and powerful presence in Australian literary history a poet who challenged orthodoxies and spoke in a remarkable range of voices This illuminating moving biography reveals a deeply passionate figure both at odds with her time and deeply of it and reclaims and celebrates this important Australian writer Gwen Harwood that excellent poet and critic deserves a sympathetic and lively biography Ann Marie Priest to her credit has just written that book Ann Blainey winner of 2009 National Biography Award Read this
