Dubai Health Authority Exam for Physiotherapist: Getting a Doctor License for Physiotherapist in Dubai. Physiotherapist in Health Authority of Abu Dhabi wants to pursue a professional practice, they will need to obtain a professional license. Like a trade or industrial license, HAAD exam for Physiotherapist, a professional license is provided by the Department of Economic Development. Unlike a trade or industrial license, which requires the use of capital to do business, a professional license allows companies or individuals to provide services that utilize trained skills. Individuals that require professional licenses: Physiotherapist, Physiotherapist and all healthcare professionals. The long list of trades that require a professional license can be picked up from any Department of Economic Development office. You can also use the Activity Search feature on the Department of Economic Development website to determine whether or not your trade requires a professional license. Like trading and manufacturing companies, professional companies require a local service agent to practice in the emirate. Holders of the professional license can employ a limited number of workers who will also be covered under the professional license. Those physicians wishing to start a clinic within Health Authority of Abu Dhabi can also take advantage of the services of Health Authority of Abu Dhabi City, which assists in both obtaining a permit and setting up a healthcare practice within its free zone.
