Marketing Competences and Strategic Flexibility in China Y. Wang,R. Li-Hua,2006-12-01 Today s China presents a unique setting for organizations Through an examination of current Chinese business this book addresses its business culture and environment In particular it considers how firms build distinctive capabilities of organizational learning and strategic flexibility to achieve superior customer focused performance The Low-Carbon Contradiction Gustav Cederlof,2023-09-19

In the pursuit of socialism Cuba became Latin America s most oil dependent economy When the Soviet Union collapsed the country lost 86 percent of its crude oil supplies resulting in a severe energy crisis In the face of this shock Cuba started to develop a low carbon economy based on economic and social reform rather than high tech innovation The Low Carbon Contradiction examines this period of rapid low carbon energy transition which many have described as a Cuban miracle or even a real life case of successful degrowth Working with original research from inside households workplaces universities and government offices Gustav Cederl f retells the history of the Cuban Revolution as one of profound environmental and infrastructural change In doing so he opens up new questions about energy transitions their politics and the conditions of a socially just low carbon future The Cuban experience shows how a society can transform itself while rapidly cutting carbon emissions in the search for sustainability Myths About Doing Business in China H. Chee,C. West,2004-10-20 China is rapidly becoming an economic superpower yet has a very different business culture that is often misunderstood outside of China This can result in costly financial and strategic errors This book confronts the myths about China and Chinese business practice and gives the reader a clear understanding of the culture and how to engage with it successfully China's

Highway of Information and Communication Technology J. Yu,R. Li-Hua,2009-12-18 Based on first hand information obtained from Chinese and Foreign enterprises and institutions in the Chinese ICT industry this book presents a comprehensive analysis of the evolution of Chinese ICT industrial sector It especially analyzes the strengths weaknesses and threats facing both the Chinese enterprise and western multinationals Winning Global Markets Philip Kotler,Milton

Kotler,2014-08-18 A new marketing paradigm focuses on the concentrated economic power of 600 global cities City Centered Marketing Why Local is the Future of Global Business is a compelling practical analysis of a new direction of marketing within the context of intensifying urbanization and the shift of global economy from West to East Philip Kotler one of the world s foremost marketing experts and his brother Milton an international marketing strategist explain why the future of marketing must focus on top global cities and their metro regions and not squandered resources on small cities Marketing is city centered activity 600 global cities will contribute 65 percent of the global GDP of 67 trillion by 2025 The top 100 cities will contribute 25 percent of GDP and 440 of these top 600 cities will be in the developing world Top cities have to improve their marketing prowess in compete for the right companies and settling on the best terms By 2025 the vast majority of consuming and middle income households will be in developing regions While New York Los Angeles and Chicago will remain major players because of high per capita GDP and capital and intellectual assets companies will pay more attention to growing city regions in the developing world Multinational businesses must change the culture of their headquarters divisions and branches as well as their value chain stakeholders to take advantage of these market changes The book details the strategies for sustainable growth with topics like Resource allocation in developed versus developing city markets Shifting the focus to city regions instead of central governments The rise of new multinational corporations from developing economies Declining consumer and business growth in developed cities Cities in China Brazil India and throughout the Middle East and Latin America are rising to become major players in the global marketplace Philip and Milton Kotler argue that an inversion is taking place and top cities are growing economically faster than their national rate of growth These emerging city markets are critical to company growth and City Centered Marketing Why Local is the Future of Global Business provides the vital information and guidelines that companies need to plan accordingly The Revival of China, Volume 3 MAO Min,2016-07-26 This is Volume 3 of the book entitled The Revival of China The full book is about the revival of China in the 20th century and the first decade of the 21st century and has eight parts This volume contains Parts 7 and 8 of the full book and covers the great culture revolution Part 7 and the Reform and Opening Up pushed by Mr DENG Xiao ping Part 8
