Errancies of Desire Vartan P. Messier, 2022-11-15 Social commentators psychologists and journalists all point to the idea that in the new millennium traditional masculinity is in crisis In contemporary film and literature this predicament is often portrayed as a problem of desire particularly heterosexual desire Male libido it appears is especially vicious when it is misguided Yet the genesis of this problem is not consistently diagnosed While some texts may situate it in the unbridled expression of human sexuality and its associated discourses others contend it is the perverse result of popular constructions of sex and gender Addressing this conundrum Errancies of Desire focuses on the intersections of phallographic violence and masculine identity in contemporary works of fiction across three subcontinents North America Western Europe and sub Saharan Africa In doing so Messier details the ways in which male desire is predicated on mediated forms of predatory and misogynistic sexuality that cross national and cultural divides Employing a comparative methodology he interrogates common perceptions of national differences and masculine identities grounded in historical specificity Errancies of Desire effectively argues that when associated symptoms of violent and sexist behavior are institutionalized and misguidedly construed as a masculine norm all men can become monsters

Transnational Stardom R. Meeuf, R. Raphael, 2013-02-21 Combining a diverse range of case studies with discussion between leading scholars in star studies and transnational cinema this book analyzes stars as sites of cross cultural contestation and the essays in this collection explore how the plasticity of stars helps disparate peoples manage the shifting ideologies of a transnational world

Film Feminisms Kristin Lené Hole, Dijana Jelača, 2018-10-03 Film Feminisms offers a global and updated overview of the history present day concerns and future of feminist film and theory It introduces frameworks from phenomenology affect theory and psychoanalysis to reception studies new media theories and critical historiography as well as engaging with key issues in documentary ethics genre theory and star studies This new textbook situates feminist film theory within the larger framework of transnational scholarly approaches as well as decolonial queer disability studies and critical race theories It offers a much needed update on pedagogical approaches to feminist film studies providing discussions of filmmakers and films that have been overlooked in the field or that are overdue for further analysis Each chapter is supported by a variety of pedagogical features including activities key terms and case studies Many of the activities draw on contemporary digital media such as social media and streaming platforms to update the field to today's changing media landscape

Rethinking Gender in Popular Culture in the 21st Century Astrid M. Fellner, Marta Fernández-Morales, Martina Martausová, 2017-11-06 This book explores popular culture representations of gender offering a rich and accessible discussion of masculinities and femininities in 21st century popular media It brings together contributors from various European countries to investigate the workings of gender in contemporary pop culture products in a brave original and rigorous way This volume is both an academic proposal and an exercise of commitment to a serious analysis of some of the media that influence us most in our everyday lives Representation matters and the position we take as viewers or consumers during reception matters even more

Fatherhood in the Borderlands Domino Renee Perez, 2022-12-06 2023 Finalist Best Academic Themed Book College Level English International Latino Book Awards A contemplative exploration of cultural representations of Mexican American fathers in contemporary media As a young girl growing up in Houston Texas in the 1980s Domino Perez spent her free time either devouring books or watching films and thinking always thinking about the media she consumed The meaningful connections between these media and how we learn form the basis of Perez's slow research approach to race class and gender in the borderlands Part cultural history part literary criticism part memoir Fatherhood in the Borderlands takes an incisive look at the value of creative inquiry while it examines the nuanced portrayal of Mexican American fathers in literature and film Perez reveals a shifting tension in the literal and figurative borderlands of popular narratives and shows how form genre and subject work to determine the roles Mexican American fathers are allowed to occupy She also calls our attention to the cultural landscape that has allowed such a racialized representation of Mexican American fathers to continue unopposed for so many years Fatherhood in the Borderlands brings readers right to the intersection of the white cultural mainstream in the United States and Mexican American cultural productions carefully considering the legibility and illegibility of Brown fathers in contemporary media

Of Treason, God and Testicles Kathleen Starck, 2016-05-11 Gender in general and masculinity in particular might not be the first associations the mind produces when presented with the subject matter of the Cold War More likely contenders would be the arms race or the ideological dichotomy of Communism versus Capitalism However recent research has established beyond a doubt that the politics and diplomacy of the superpower conflict were not only strongly influenced by beliefs about gender but simultaneously also generated them In fact in a social climate where gender conformity was considered as crucial as ideological conformity the conflict gave rise to what might be called distinctive Cold War masculinities At the same time the socio historical context of the Cold War markedly shaped the cinemas of one of the main Cold War players the United States and of its close ally Great Britain Both film industries produced films overtly or covertly depicting the Cold War characterised by propaganda coercion and resistance to varying degrees Integrating these findings from the fields of masculinity studies and cultural Cold War studies this book analyses in what shape the interplay between widespread political and ideological Cold War convictions and Cold War notions of masculinity found its way onto British and American cinema screens of the early Cold War
