

...coming from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. "No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot offend who are the children of God, and who do not practice sinning. By this it is the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness. Whoever is born of God is the one who does not love his brother.

Love One Another

"For this is the message that you have heard from the Father: that we should love one another." We should not be afraid of the man who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And yet you are afraid of him? Because his own deeds were evil and he is not righteous. "Do not be surprised, brothers, that the Father has sent me. We know that we have passed out of death into life because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

"By this we know love: that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or with the tongue only, but in deed and in truth.

"By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his love: that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and keep his commandments, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in God, and God is in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us.

Test the Spirits

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God.

Reading the Bible in Islamic Context Daniel Crowther,Shirin Shafaie,Ida Glaser,Shabbir Akhtar,2017-11-08 In the current political and social climate there is increasing demand for a deeper understanding of Muslims the Qur an and Islam as well as a keen demand among Muslim scholars to explore ways of engaging with Christians theologically culturally and socially This book explores the ways in which an awareness of Islam and the Qur an can change the way in which the Bible is read The contributors come from both Muslim and Christian backgrounds bring various levels of commitment to the Qur an and the Bible as Scripture and often have significantly different perspectives The first section of the book contains chapters that compare the report of an event in the Bible with a report of the same event in the Qur an The second section addresses Muslim readings of the Bible and biblical tradition and looks at how Muslims might regard the Bible Can they recognise it as Scripture If so what does that mean and how does it relate to the Qur an as Scripture Similarly how might Christian readers regard the Qur an The final section explores different analogies for understanding the Bible in relation to the Qur an The book concludes with a reflection upon the particular challenges that await Muslim scholars who seek to respond to Jewish and Christian understandings of the Jewish and Christian scriptures A pioneering venture into intertextual reading this book has important implications for relationships between Christians and Muslims It will be of significant value to scholars of both Biblical and Qur anic Studies as well as any Muslim seeking to deepen their understanding of the Bible and any Christian looking to transform the way in which they read the Bible

A New Model of the Authentic Church Robert Fuggi,2018-02-08 In American church culture worldly

benchmarks of achievement have all but blinded us to the true purpose of the body of Christ A New Model of the Authentic Church may be one of the most significant books written on the American church in decades It not only offers a scholarly analysis of the current state of the church but provides practical solutions The book offers a brilliantly well developed model for how to make church work more effectively If implemented it would provide a much needed paradigm shift in how we do church in America The books main contribution is that it provides a workable framework not only on how to birth new missionally minded churches but how to reform existing ones back to the Authentic Church of the gospels If its principles are taken and applied the book could alter the landscape of the American church which will be a breath of fresh theological air to a church that has lost its way in the new millennium The purpose of this book is not to just challenge and change the status quo its goal is to bring a real lasting transformation to how we do church The aspiration in writing this book is for it to be seen and read not just as a critical assessment of the condition of the American church but as a practical blueprint that will provide much renewed hope and purpose to the contemporary American church the bride of Christ Reading Writing Right Jeremy Punt, MARIUS J Nel, 2018-10-18 In a collection of essays former students colleagues and friends of Prof Elna Mouton honour her life career and scholarly contributions upon her retirement from Stellenbosch University The various essays interact with Prof Mouton s concern for biblical hermeneutics ethics and the interactions and connections between the two ultimately illustrating the width and variety of interest that her work stimulated and which it interacted with
