Past, 2012-03-13 The first extended analysis of the relationship between Italian criminology and crime fiction in English Methods of Murder examines works by major authors both popular such as Gianrico Carofiglio and canonical such as Carlo Emilio Gadda Many scholars have argued that detective fiction did not exist in Italy until 1929 and that the genre which was considered largely Anglo Saxon was irrelevant on the Italian peninsula By contrast Past traces the roots of the twentieth century literature and cinema of crime to two much earlier diverging interpretations of the criminal the bodiless figure of Cesare Beccaria's Enlightenment era On Crimes and Punishments and the biological offender of Cesare Lombroso's positivist Criminal Man Through her examinations of these texts Past demonstrates the links between literary philosophical and scientific constructions of the criminal and provides the basis for an important reconceptualization of Italian crime fiction

around the globe The Essence and the Margin ,2009-01-01 With the expansion of the EU and calls for a European constitution the question of a common European identity has become increasingly pressing in recent times However in the face of diverse national and regional traditions and the absence of an obvious European cultural imaginary the forging of a strong sense of European identity proves problematic This volume brings together case studies of national and regional images from across Europe which together suggest emerging patterns of identification within contemporary Europe patterns which may not necessarily amount to a European identity but rather to a European mode of identification The chronological structure of the volume demonstrates the increasingly problematic nature of national collective memories and past imaginaries in light of emergent marginal voices and images and suggests that it is both from beyond and within the national paradigm that new challenges are now reshaping the cultural imaginary of European communities Focusing on cultural images within film literature national narratives and myths museum exhibitions and architecture this volume is of interest to a wide variety of disciplines in the humanities and presents an interdisciplinary approach to questions of cultural memory and identity formation Minority Languages and Cultures in Audiovisual Translation Eleonora Sasso,2025-08-19 This collection explores the range of approaches and frameworks used in the study of minority languages and cultures in audiovisual translation AVT encouraging interdisciplinary conversations toward fostering linguistic diversity on screen The volume is organized around five parts looking at examples from across the Americas Europe the Middle East and China as well as issues around sign languages in AVT Chapters explore innovative strategies in subtitling dubbing and fansubbing to address non standard varieties ethnolinguistic diversities and multilingualism among other key themes across different forms of media The volume also looks ahead to how the study and practice of AVT might be re envisioned in relation to minority languages societies and cultures in the future This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies audiovisual translation media accessibility and media studies Sicilian Elements in Andrea Camilleri's Narrative Language Cinzia Russi,2020-10-14 Sicilian Elements in Andrea Camilleri's Narrative Language examines Camilleri's unique linguistic repertoire and techniques over his career as a novelist It focuses on the intensification of Sicilian linguistic features in Camilleri's narrative works in particular features pertaining to the domains of sounds and grammar since these have been marginalized in linguistic centered research on the evolution of Camilleri's narrative language and remain overall understudied Through a systematic comparative analysis of the distribution patterns of selected Sicilian features in a selection of Camilleri's historical novels and novels of the Montalbano series the author identifies the individual features that have become most widespread and the lexical items that are targeted with highest frequency and consistency The results of the analysis show that in the earlier novels Sicilian features are rather sparse and can be attributed to linguistic situational functionality that is they function as indices of salient distinctive aspects of topics settings events situations and characters Conversely in the latest novels Sicilian elements pervade the entire novels and the texts are written almost entirely in Camilleri's own Sicilian vigatese so that Sicilian is stripped of any linguistic situational functionality Obadiah Sforza: Light of the Nations, 2024-10-02 Light of the Nations is a philosophical work written by the Jewish intellectual and eminent biblical commentator Obadiah Sforza ca 1475-1550. His treatise an apology for both Jewish and universal monotheistic beliefs was published in Hebrew in 1537 under the title Or Ammim and was translated by the author into Latin as Lumen Gentium in 1548. Written in the style of a classical medieval Scholastic summa, the treatise's multilingual and multicultural dimensions reveal key humanist ideas that prevailed in the cities of northern Italy during the early modern period while also speaking to its author's abiding exegetical rationality Italian Crime Fiction Giuliana Pieri, 2011-10-15 The present volume is the first study in the English language to focus specifically on Italian crime fiction weaving together a historical perspective and a thematic approach with a particular focus on the representation of space especially city space gender and the tradition of impegno the social and political engagement which characterised the Italian cultural and literary scene in the postwar period. The 8 chapters in this volume explore the distinctive features of the Italian tradition from the 1930s to the present by focusing on a wide range of detective and crime novels by selected Italian writers some of whom have an established international reputation such as C. E. Gadda, L. Sciascia and U. Eco whilst others may be relatively unknown such as the new generation of crime writers of the Bologna school and Italian women crime writers. Each chapter examines a specific period movement or group of writers as well as engaging with broader debates over the contribution crime fiction makes more generally to contemporary Italian and European culture. The editor and contributors of this volume argue strongly in favour of reinstating crime fiction within the canon of Italian modern literature by presenting this once marginalised literary genre as a body of works which when viewed without the artificial distinction between high and popular literature shows a remarkable insight into Italy's postwar history tracking its societal and political troubles and changes as well as often also engaging with metaphorical and philosophical notions of right or wrong evil redemption and the search of the self.

Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies: A-J Gaetana Marrone, 2007 Publisher description Blood on the Table Jean Anderson, Carolina Miranda, Barbara Pezzotti, 2018-04-24 Written from a multicultural and interdisciplinary perspective this collection of new essays explores the semiotics of food in the 20th and 21st century crime fiction of authors such as Anthony Bourdain, Arthur Upfield, Sara Paretsky, Andrea Camilleri, Fred Vargas, Ruth Rendell, Stieg Larsson, Leonardo Padura, Georges Simenon, Paco Ignacio Taibo II and Donna Leon. The collection covers a range of issues such as the provision of intra-textual or paratextual recipes, the aesthetics and ethics of food eating rituals as indications of cultural belonging and regional, national and supranational identities. It also tackles eating disorders and other seemingly abnormal habits as signs of Otherness. Also mentioned are the television productions of the Inspector Montalbano series 1999-ongoing, the Danish Swedish Bron Broen 2011, The Bridge and its remakes The Tunnel 2013 France, UK and The Bridge 2013 USA The Shadow of the Precursor Nena Bierbaum, 2011-10-18 A shadow in its most literal sense is the projection of a silhouette against a surface and the obstruction of direct light from hitting that surface For writers and artists the shadows cast by their precursors can be either a welcome influence one consciously evoked in textual production via homage or bricolage or can manifest as an intrusive haunting prohibitive presence one which threatens to engulf the successor Many writers and artists are affected by an anxious and ambiguous relationship with their precursors while others are energised by this relationship The role that intertextuality plays in creative production invites interrogation and this publication explores a range of conscious and unconscious influences informing relations between texts and contexts between predecessors and successors The chapters revolve around intertextual influence ranging from conscious imitation and intentional allusion to Julia Kristeva's idea of intertextuality Do all texts contain references to and even quotations from other texts Do such references help shape how we read This multidisciplinary work includes chapters on the long shadows cast by Shakespeare Dante Scott Virgil and Ovid the shadows of colonial precursors on postcolonial successors the shadows cast over Kipling and Murdoch and chapters on other writers dramatists and filmmakers and their relationships with precursor figures With its focus on intertextual relationships this book contributes to the thriving fields of adaptation studies and studies of intertextuality Alterità François Jullien, 2018-10-16T00:00:00+02:00 Pensare l'alterità una posta in gioco decisiva per la comprensione del mondo contemporaneo Le lezioni che François Jullien ha tenuto all'Università San Raffaele di Milano interrogano la questione dell'Altro sia in termini culturali sia in termini personali L'incontro con una cultura altra viene indagato in particolare in riferimento alla Cina e agli scarti che essa apre rispetto alle categorie di pensiero europee Attraverso l'esplorazione degli scarti fra le culture Jullien intende favorire lo sviluppo di un'area in cui si possa promuovere un comune intensivo Cos introducendo concetti come l'intimo che si scarta dal frastuono dell'amore o la connivenza che esprime l'intesa implicita con l'Altro e con il suo mondo si delineano le condizioni di possibilità di un'esistenza del soggetto che si tenga fuori di sé per incontrare l'Altro Death in Sicily Andrea Camilleri, 2013-05-28 Collected in one volume the first three books in the bestselling Inspector Montalbano mystery series You either love Andrea Camilleri or you haven't read him yet Each novel in this wholly addictive entirely magical series set in Sicily and starring a detective unlike any other in crime fiction blasts the brain like a shot of pure oxygen Aglow with local color packed with flint dry wit as fresh and clean as Mediterranean seafood altogether transporting Long live Camilleri and long live Montalbano A J Finn 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Woman in the Window American readers were first introduced to Sicily's inimitable Inspector Salvo Montalbano more than ten years ago Since then the detective and his characteristic mix of humor cynicism compassion and love of good food has won the affection of crime fiction aficionados and Italophiles alike With Andrea Camilleri's last two mysteries appearing on the New York Times bestseller list it's clear that interest in the series is at an all time high Now Death in Sicily features the Inspector's first three adventures in one handy volume offering new readers just the enticement they need to get started
