La Condition De La Femme

Caroline Andrew, Sanda Rodgers

La Condition De La Femme:

De la condition civique et politique de la femme Henri George Breuillac, 1886 Position Des Femmes Dans Les Lois Des Nations International Council of Women. Standing Committee on Laws Concerning the Legal Position of Women, 1912 La Condition Feminine Ou Femme Mode D'emploi, Femmes, Mujeres, Women Secrétariat à la condition féminine, La femme dans l'histoire Gaston Richard, 1909 La vie irrégulière et la condition des femmes en China Maxime Durand Fardel, 1876 Women's Position in the Laws of the Nations International Council of Women, 1912 A report representing the combined efforts of women around the world to report on women's legal status in other countries Recherches sur la condition féminine dans la société d'aujourd'hui Françoise Guelaud, 1967 Report on the situation of the woman worker in France covers historical factors demographic aspects age group marital status number of children educational level position in the occupational structure legal status etc Statistical tables and bibliography

Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the Library of the British Museum in the Years ... British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1903 Femmes Et L'État Canadien Caroline Andrew, Sanda Rodgers, 1997 A collection of essays presented at a conference to commemorate the twentieth anniversary of the release of the Report of the Royal Commission on the Status of Women Women and the Canadian State both celebrates and critically assesses the Report Women bureaucrats activists and academics consider the impact successes and failures of the Report from a variety of viewpoints and reflect on the experience of Canadian women since its publication in 1970 Women Wage-earners Helen Campbell, 1893 Courses of Study John Mackinnon Robertson, 1908 Catalogue de Références de la Femme Canada. Secretary of State. Women's Programme, 1982 The Road to a United Europe Ann-Christina L. Knudsen, 2009 Papers from the Second International RICHIE Conference held in Copenhagen Denmark in December 2006 On ne naît pas femme : on le devient Bonnie Mann, Martina Ferrari, 2017-07-20 This collection of essays takes up the most famous feminist sentence ever written Simone de Beauvoir's On ne naît pas femme on le devient finding in it a flashpoint that galvanizes feminist thinking and action in multiple dimensions Since its publication the sentence has inspired feminist thinking and action in many different cultural and linguistic contexts Two entangled controversies emerge in the life of this sentence a controversy over the practice of translation and a controversy over the nature and status of sexual difference Various translations into English as One is not born but rather becomes a woman Parshley 1953 one is not born but rather becomes woman Borde and Malovany Chevallier 2010 and women are made not born in popular parlance the conflict over the translation crystallizes the feminist debate over the possibilities and limitations of social construction as a theory of sexual difference When Sheila Malovany Chevallier and Constance Borde contributors to this volume translated Le Deuxième Sexe into English in 2010 their decision to alter the translation of the famous sentence by omitting the ignited debate that has not yet exhausted itself The controversy over the English translation has opened a conversation about translation practices and their relation to meaning more generally and broadens in this volume into an examination of the life of Beauvoir's key sentence in other languages and political and cultural contexts as well. The philosophers, translators, literary scholars and historian who author these essays take decidedly different positions on the meaning of the sentence in French and thus on its correct translation in a variety of languages but also on the meaning and salience of the question of sexual difference as it travels between languages, cultures and political worlds. The Truth about Woman Catherine Gasquoin Hartley, 1913

Womanhood, 1904 Counterpractice Rakhee Balaram, 2022-03-08 Counterpractice highlights a generation of women who used art to define a culture of experimental thought and practice during the period of the French women's movement or Mouvement de Libération des Femmes 1970-81. It considers women's art in relation to some of the most exciting thinkers to have emerged from the French literature and philosophy of the 1970s: Hélène Cixous, Luce Irigaray and Julia Kristeva, forcing a timely reconsideration of the full spectrum of revolutionary practices by women in the years following the events of May 68. Lavishly illustrated with over 200 images, the book also features an illuminating foreword by art historian Griselda Pollock. Women's Rights and Women's Lives in France 1944-68 Claire Duchén, 2024-11-01 Women's Rights and Women's Lives in France explores the everyday experiences of women between the liberation and May 1968. In 1945, French women believed that a new era was beginning for them in which they had finally won equality: the right to vote in 1944, equal pay and access to education and employment. But the new Republic considered that women's main role was that of motherhood. Competing visions of women's place had concrete implications for women's lives, influencing work, politics and ideals of femininity. Working from a wide range of sources including women's magazines, prescriptive literature, political pamphlets, fiction and memoirs and government reports, Claire Duchén follows the debates concerning women through twenty years and grounds them in the changing social reality of postwar France. Women's Rights and Women's Lives in France 1944-1968 Claire Duchén, 2003-09-02 Women's Rights and Women's Lives in France 1944-1968 explores key aspects of the everyday lives of women between the Liberation of France and the events of May 68. At the end of the war, French women believed that a new era was beginning and that equality had been won. The redefined postwar public sphere required women's participation for the new democracy and women's labour power for reconstruction, but equally important was the belief in women's role as mothers. Over the next two decades, the tensions between competing visions of women's proper place dominated discourses of womanhood as well as policy decisions and had concrete implications for women's lives. Working from a wide range of sources including women's magazines, prescriptive literature, documentation from political parties, government reports, parliamentary debates and personal memoirs, Claire Duchén follows the debates concerning womanhood, women's rights and women's lives through the 1944-1968 period and grounds them in the changing reality of postwar France.
