Online Virality Valérie Schafer, Fred Pailler, 2024-08-19 The book Online Virality edited by Valérie Schafer and Fred Pailler C2DH University of Luxembourg aims to provide a comprehensive examination of online virality It explores the many ways we can think about this modern phenomenon and analyse the circulation reception and evolution of viral born digital content Virality and content sharing always intertwine material infrastructural visual and discursive elements This involves various platforms stakeholders intermediaries social groups and communities that are constantly re-defining themselves Regulation curation and content moderation politics as well as affects and emotions fears humour empathy hatred are also at the core of online virality The publication offers an interdisciplinary overview on online virality by including different types of scientific inputs such as precise case studies various methodological approaches including close and distant reading visual studies discourse analysis etc as well as historical and socio-technical analyses The book is organised around three main topics Expressions and Genres Mobilisations and Engagements Circulation and Infrastructures The first part explores the semiotics of virality the diverse and creative forms of expression specific genres the relation to other media and the affective side of virality such as using humour or provocation The second part focuses on the political dimension of memes and viral content and their use in the context of controversy or political and ideological opposition Finally the third part delves into the often understudied but essential side of virality by examining the role of platforms and their curation in short the infrastructural dimension of virality These three parts allow us to question such fundamental notions linked to virality as among others circulation reception economy of attention instrumentalisation and affect This volume brings together authors from various disciplines including semiotics history information and communication sciences computer science digital humanities media studies In addition the contributors approach the question via case studies that allow for a perspective that is not exclusively US and European centred Some chapters explore virality in Brazil Chile while the book also examines a wide variety of platforms YouTube Twitter Instagram TikTok video game platforms etc

Disorienting Vision Inge E. Boer,2022-06-08 This book begins with a painting Loyalty to cultural artefacts listening carefully to what they have to say is the secret of Inge E Boer's approach to the French Orientalists tradition In a post Said manner Boer provides close readings of philosophical and literary texts paintings prints and other artefacts Her readings establish a dialogue with critical post colonial and feminist theory as well as art historical and literary scholarship She treats all these artefacts like subjects in their own right enabling them to show and tell This dialogic attention to detail makes for an innovative vision that shuns the sweeping statements of a priori conviction as much as avoiding the unwitting endorsements that the rhetoric of scholarship sometimes promotes

The Burlington Magazine for Connoisseurs, 1940 Manet/Velázquez Gary Tinterow, Geneviève Lacambre, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Musée d'Orsay, 2003 Here approximately two hundred works by French and Spanish artists chart the development of this cultural influence and map a fascinating shift in the paradigm of painting from Idealism to Realism from Italy to Spain from Renaissance to Baroque Above all these images demonstrate how direct contact with Spanish painting fired the imagination of nineteenth century French artists and brought about the triumph of Realism in the 1860s and with it a foundation for modern art
