Abel Gance and the End of Silent Cinema Paul Cuff, 2016-11-10 This book explores the creation and destruction of Abel Gance s most ambitious film project and seeks to explain why his meteoric career was so nearly extinguished at the end of silent cinema By 1929 Gance was France s most famous director Acclaimed for his technical innovation and visual imagination he was also admonished for the excessive length and expense of his productions Gance s first sound film La Fin du Monde 1930 was a critical and financial disaster so great that it nearly destroyed his career But what went wrong Gance claimed it was commercial sabotage whilst critics blamed the director s inexperience with new technology Neither excuse is satisfactory Based on extensive archival research this book re investigates the cultural background and aesthetic consequences of Gance s transition from silent filmmaking to sound cinema La Fin du Monde is revealed to be only one element of an extraordinary cultural project to transform cinema into a universal religion and propagate its power through the League of Nations From unfinished films to unrealized social revolutions the reader is given a fascinating tour of Gance s lost cinematic utopia

Generation Stalin Andrew Sobanet, 2018-09-11 Generation Stalin traces Joseph Stalin s rise as a dominant figure in French political culture from the 1930s through the 1950s Andrew Sobanet brings to light the crucial role French writers played in building Stalin's cult of personality and in disseminating Stalinist propaganda in the international Communist sphere including within the USSR Based on a wide array of sources literary cinematic historical and archival Generation Stalin situates in a broad cultural context the work of the most prominent intellectuals affiliated with the French Communist Party including Goncourt winner Henri Barbusse Nobel laureate Romain Rolland renowned poet Paul Eluard and canonical literary figure Louis Aragon Generation Stalin arrives at a pivotal moment with the Stalin cult and elements of Stalinist ideology resurgent in twenty first century Russia and authoritarianism on the rise around the world Vivre son enfance au sein d'une secte religieuse Lorraine Derocher, 2008 Philon D'Alexandrie Jean Danielou SJ, 2009-07-02 Philo of Alexandria according to Cardinal Danielou represents the first attempt to correct Greek philosophical thought with biblical revelation Philo was a faithful Jew who studiously avoided syncretism with pagan religion biblical worship could only be radically monotheistic But Philo represents more than a spiritual master he inaugurated Judeo Christian philosophy itself But even here Philo avoided syncretism with Platonism and remained highly orthodox Modifying Greek philosophy at the points where it conflicted with biblical revelation Philo built the fundamentals of a Judeo Christian way of looking at the world that would have a profound influence for centuries to come Bibliographie catholique, revue critique. Tom. 1-79 [and] Tables générales, 1864-1874, 1846 Histoire de Jésus-Christ d'après les textes contemporains Joseph-Théophile Foisset, 1855 Extremities Darcy Grimaldo Grigsby, 2002-01-01 In the decades following the French Revolution four artists Girodet Gros Gericault and Delacroix painted works in their Parisian studios that vividly expressed violent events in faraway colonial lands This book examines six of these paintings and argues that their disturbing erotic depictions of slavery revolt plague decapitation cannibalism massacre and abduction chart the history of France's empire and colonial politics Darcy Grimaldo Grigsby shows that these paintings about occurrences in the West Indies Syria Egypt Senegal and Ottoman Empire Greece are preoccupied not with mastery and control but with loss degradation and failure and she explains how such representations of crises in the colonies were able to answer the artists' longings as well as the needs of the government and the opposition parties at home Empire made painters devoted to the representation of liberty and the new French nation confront liberty's antithesis slavery It also forced them to contend with cultural and racial difference Young male artists responded says Grigsby by translating distant crises into images of challenges to the self making history painting the site where geographic extremities and bodily extremities articulated one another Music Writing Literature, from Sand via Debussy to Derrida Peter Dayan, 2017-07-05 Why does poetry appeal to music Can music be said to communicate as language does What between music and poetry is it possible to translate These fundamental questions have remained obstinately difficult despite the recent burgeoning of word and music studies Peter Dayan contends that the reasons for this difficulty were worked out with extraordinary rigour and consistency in a French literary tradition echoed by composers such as Berlioz and Debussy which stretches from Sand to Derrida Their writing shows how it is both necessary and futile to look for music in poetry or for poetry in music necessary because each art defines itself by reference to what it is not and cannot be in order to point to an idealized totality outside itself futile because the musicality of poetry like the poetic meaning of music must remain as elusive as that idealized totality its distance is the very condition of the art Thus is generated a subtle but unmistakable general definition of the nature of art which has proved uniquely able to survive all the probings of poststructuralism That definition of art is inseparable from a disturbingly effective scepticism towards all forms of explication and explanation in critical discourse so it is doubtless not surprising that critics in general have done their best to ignore it But by bringing out what Sand Baudelaire Mallarm Proust Debussy Berlioz Barthes and Derrida all do in the same way as they work on the limits of the analogy between music and literature this book shows how it is possible productive illuminating and fascinating to work on those limits though to do so as we find repeatedly in Chopin s dreams as in Derrida s tombeaux requires us to have the courage to face in music our literal death and the limits of our intelligence

Republic of Images Alan Williams,1992-03 Chronicling one of the most popular national cinemas this book traces the evolution of French filmmaking from 1895 the year of the debut of the Cinematographe in Paris to the present day Williams offers a synthesis of history biography aesthetics and film theory

The Golden Age of Disaster Cinema Nik Havert,2019-05-20 From the 1950s through the 1970s disaster movies were a wildly popular genre Audiences thrilled at the spectacle of these films many of which were considered glamorous for their time Derided by critics they became box office hits and cult classics inspiring filmmakers around the globe Some of them launched the careers of producers directors and actors who would go on to create some of Hollywood s biggest blockbusters With more than 40 interviews with actors actresses producers stuntmen special effects artists and others this book covers the Golden Age of sinking ships burning buildings massive earthquakes viral pandemics and outbreaks of animal madness

Radical Botany Natania Meeker,Antónia Szabari,2019-12-03 Winner 2019 Science Fiction Technoculture Studies Book Prize Radical Botany excavates a tradition in which plants participate in the effort to imagine new worlds and envision new futures Modernity the book claims is defined by the idea of all life as vegetal Meeker and Szabari argue that the recognition of plants liveliness and animation as a result of scientific discoveries from the seventeenth century to today has mobilized speculative creation in fiction cinema and art Plants complement and challenge notions of human life Radical Botany traces the implications of the speculative mobilization of plants for feminism queer studies and posthumanist thought If as Michael Foucault has argued the notion of the human was born at a particular historical moment and is now nearing its end Radical Botany reveals that this origin and endpoint are deeply informed by vegetality as a form of pre and posthuman subjectivity The trajectory of speculative fiction which this book traces offers insights into the human relationship to animate matter and the technological mediations through which we enter into contact with the material world Plants profoundly shape human experience from early modern absolutist societies to late capitalism s manipulations of life and the onset of climate change and attendant mass extinction A major intervention in critical plant studies Radical Botany reveals the centuries long history by which science and the arts have combined to posit plants as the model for all animate life and thereby envision a different future for the cosmos Breaking News? Frédéric Bastien, 2018-01-15

In the thousand channel universe politicians must find innovative ways to reach citizens via television Viewership for news and current affairs television programs has dropped dramatically Meanwhile the rise of programming that blends information with entertainment infotainment on Canadian television especially in Quebec has provided an opportunity for today's politicians to use it to their advantage But their appearances on these programs also fuel concerns over the declining authority of journalism in the public sphere Breaking News traces the development of infotainment and exposes the impact of these kinds of programs on modern political communication Frédéric Bastien lays out the issues raised by the eroding influence of existing news gatekeepers and the implications of infotainment for politicians journalists and citizens while arguing that infotainment ultimately makes a positive contribution to democratic life by piquing the audience's interest in public affairs and motivating it to pay more attention to political news in general Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium Lee Carruthers, Charles Tepperman, 2023-01-15

At the turn of the millennium Canadian cinema appeared to have reached an apex of aesthetic and commercial transformation Domestic filmmaking has since declined in visibility the sense of celebrity once associated with independent directors has diminished projects garner less critical attention and concepts that made late twentieth century Canadian film legible have been reconsidered or displaced Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium examines this dramatic transformation and revitalizes our engagement with Canadian cinema in the contemporary moment presenting focused case studies of films and filmmakers and contextual studies of Canadian film policy labour and film festivals Contributors trace key developments since 2000 including the renouveau or Quebec New Wave Indigenous filmmaking i docs and diasporic experimental filmmaking Reflecting the way film in Canada mediates multiple cultures forging new affinities among anglophone francophone and Indigenous language examples this book engages familiar figures such as Denis Villeneuve Xavier Dolan Sarah Polley and Guy Maddin in the same breath as small budget independent films documentaries and experimental works that have emerged in the Canadian scene Fuelled by close attention to the films themselves and a desire to develop new scholarly approaches Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium models a renewed commitment to keeping the conversation about Canadian cinema vibrant and alive The Use and Abuse of Eschatology in the Middle Ages Werner Verbeke, D. Verhelst, Andries Welkenhuysen, 1988

An interdisciplinary approach with hits comparative study of sources helps to highlight the intellectual preoccupations of many religious thinkers who grappled with the overwhelming prospect of Universal destruction ReFocus: The Films of Xavier Dolan Lafontaine Andree Lafontaine, 2019-07-29

Ever since his first feature film I Killed My Mother premiered at Cannes every film from the 29 year old director Xavier Dolan has generated significant critical interest A recipient of numerous awards Dolan has recently taken his career to an international level with The Death and Life of John F Donovan As the first book length study about Dolan with case studies of key films like Mommy 2014 Tom at the Farm 2013 and It's Only the End of the World 2016 this volume explores the global reach of small national and subnational cinemas In particular it uses Dolan's cinema as a departure point to reconsider the position of Quebec film and cultural imaginary within a global cinematic culture as well as the intersections between national millennial and queer filmmaking
