La France Invisible:

The Hidden History of Crime, Corruption, and States Renate Bridenthal, 2017-06 Renowned historical sociologist Charles Tilly wrote many years ago that banditry piracy gangland rivalry policing and war making all belong on the same continuum This volume pursues the idea by revealing how lawbreakers and lawmakers have related to one another on the shadowy terrains of power over wide stretches of time and space Illicit activities and forces have been more important in state building and state maintenance than conventional histories have acknowledged Covering vast chronological and global terrain this book traces the contested and often overlapping boundaries between these practices in such very different polities as the pre modern city states of Europe the modern nation states of France and Japan the imperial power of Britain in India and North America Africa s and Southeast Asia s postcolonial states and the emerging postmodern regional entity of the Mediterranean Sea Indeed the contemporary explosion of transnational crime raises the question of whether or not the relationship of illicit to licit practices may be mutating once more leading to new political forms beyond the nation state

Invisible Immigrants Amelia H. Lyons, 2005 The New Old World Perry Anderson, 2011-11-07 The New Old World looks at the history of the European Union the core continental countries within it and the issue of its further expansion into Asia It opens with a consideration of the origins and outcomes of European integration since the Second World War and how today s EU has been theorized across a range of contemporary disciplines It then moves to more detailed accounts of political and cultural developments in the three principal states of the original Common Market France Germany and Italy A third section explores the interrelated histories of Cyprus and Turkey that pose a leading geopolitical challenge to the Community The book ends by tracing ideas of European unity from the Enlightenment to the present and their bearing on the future of the Union The New Old World offers a critical portrait of a continent now increasingly hailed as a moral and political example to the world at large

The Deindustrialized World Steven High, Lachlan MacKinnon, Andrew Perchard, 2017-07-20 Since the 1970s the closure of mines mills and factories has marked a rupture in working class lives The Deindustrialized World interrogates the process of industrial ruination from the first impact of layoffs in metropolitan cities suburban areas and single industry towns to the shock waves that rippled outward affecting entire regions countries and beyond Scholars from France Canada Australia the United Kingdom and the United States share personal stories of ruin and ruination and ask others what it means to be working class in a postindustrial world Part 1 examines the ruination of former workplaces and the failing health and injured bodies of industrial workers Part 2 brings to light disparities between rural resource towns and cities where hipster revitalization often overshadows industrial loss Part 3 reveals the ongoing impact of deindustrialization on working people and their place in the new global economy Together the chapters open a window on the lived experiences of people living at ground zero of deindustrialization revealing its layered impacts and examining how workers environmentalists activists and the state have responded to its challenges

Artistic Creation and Ethical Criticism Ted

Nannicelli,2020-05-05 Artistic Creation and Ethical Criticism a study in philosophical aesthetics investigates an idea that underpins the ethical criticism of art but that is rarely acknowledged and poorly understood namely that the ethical criticism of art involves judgments not only of the attitudes a work endorses or solicits but of what artists do to create the work The book pioneers an innovative production oriented approach to the study of the ethical criticism of art one that will provide a detailed philosophical account of the intersection of ethics and artistic creation as well as conceptual tools that can guide future philosophizing and criticism Ted Nannicelli offers three arguments concerning the ethical criticism of art First he argues that judgments of an artwork's ethical value are already often made in terms of how it was created and examines why some art forms more readily lend themselves to this form of ethical appraisal than others He then asserts that production oriented evaluations of artworks are less contested than other sorts of ethical criticism and so lead to certain practical consequences from censure dismissal and prosecution to shifts in policy and even legislation Finally Nannicelli defends the production oriented approach arguing that it is not only tacit in many of our art appreciative practices but is in fact rationally warranted There are many cases in which we should ethically critique artworks in terms of how they are created because this approach handles cases that other approaches cannot and results in plausible judgments about the works relative ethical and artistic value The concise powerful arguments presented here will appeal to moral philosophers philosophers of art and aesthetics and critics interested in the intersection of artistic production and criticism and ethics

Partisan Dealignment and the Blue-Collar Electorate in France Sally Marthaler,2020-01-02 This book explores partisan dealignment in France between 1978 and 2012 with a particular focus on the blue collar electorate and its relationship with the political parties of the established left the Socialist Party or Parti socialiste and the Communist Party or Parti communiste français It highlights the distinctiveness of blue collar partisanship in a context of significant political social and economic change and compares it with patterns of partisanship in the wider electorate The voter party relationship is self evidently a bilateral one which can be modified both on the demand side because voters change and on the supply side because parties change Four factors are identified as playing a key role in partisan dealignment value change policy convergence political sophistication and political trust There is compelling evidence that while each of these makes a contribution it is changes in the behaviour of the parties that are driving partisan dealignment among blue collar workers in France

Demanding Sex: Critical Reflections on the Regulation of Prostitution Marina Della Giusta,2016-05-13 Interrogating supply demand from an inter and multi disciplinary perspective this collection broadens engagement beyond the routine analysis of the locus of violence in prostitution and the validity of the prostitute's consent A focus on the supply demand dynamic brings into play a range of other societal economic and psychological factors such as the social construction of sexuality the viability of alternative choices for prostitutes and clients and the impact of regulatory regimes on the provision of sexual services The factors which underlie each component of the supply demand dyad are also studied and an examination is made of their dynamic

interrelation The collection emphasizes the importance of rendering policy makers alert to the evidence emerging from empirical studies conducted in different fields of enquiry in the hope of moving beyond polarity and politics at the local national and international level

The Essence and the Margin ,2009-01-01 With the expansion of the EU and calls for a European constitution the question of a common European identity has become increasingly pressing in recent times However in the face of diverse national and regional traditions and the absence of an obvious European cultural imaginary the forging of a strong sense of European identity proves problematic This volume brings together case studies of national and regional images from across Europe which together suggest emerging patterns of identification within contemporary Europe patterns which may not necessarily amount to a European identity but rather to a European mode of identification The chronological structure of the volume demonstrates the increasingly problematic nature of national collective memories and past imaginaries in light of emergent marginal voices and images and suggests that it is both from beyond and within the national paradigm that new challenges are now reshaping the cultural imaginary of European communities Focusing on cultural images within film literature national narratives and myths museum exhibitions and architecture this volume is of interest to a wide variety of disciplines in the humanities and presents an interdisciplinary approach to questions of cultural memory and identity formation

West African Women Entrepreneurs in a Glocal World Ulrike Schuerkens,2025-03-24 More African women than men become entrepreneurs with women often balancing time caring for their households with small enterprises such as setting up shops in front of their homes renting market stalls or setting up hairstyling businesses This book considers these micro level instances of entrepreneurship as well as cases of more established high status entrepreneurs to build a picture of women entrepreneurs in West African societies and their wider role in socio economic development Small and medium enterprises are seen as agents of change in the global south vital for job creation and poverty reduction but women often face barriers which hinder their entrepreneurial success such as lack of funding useful networks or inhibitive gender stereotypes This book highlights cases of gender and economic success to demonstrate the significant potential of the female economy to generate progress and change This book will be an important read for students and researchers of entrepreneurship business gender development and economic sociology in Africa

Unspeakable Secrets and the Psychoanalysis of Culture Esther Rashkin,2008-08-07 Winner of the 2009 Grady Award Theoretical Category presented by the National Association for the Advancement of Psychoanalysis Esther Rashkin argues that psychoanalysis galvanizes as no other discipline can an understanding of texts in their social historical and political contexts Demonstrating that close reading can be a radical political practice she exposes heretofore unseen ideologies concealed in works of film and literature from Last Tango in Paris to The Picture of Dorian Gray from Barthes's Mythologies and Balzac's Sarrasine to Babette's Feast Psychoanalytic concepts such as identification with the aggressor the crypt/cryptonymy illness of mourning and the phantom allow Rashkin to reveal how shameful and unspeakable secrets propel the narratives she examines In the process she convincingly makes the case for a new practice of psychoanalytic cultural studies a practice that fully engages with the politicized discourses anti-Semitism racism colonialism censorship that mark a text's location in history Muslims in Spain, 1492-1814 Eloy Martín-Corrales, 2020-12-15 In Muslims in Spain 1492-1814 Living and Negotiating in the Land of the Infidel Eloy Martín Corrales surveys Hispano-Muslim relations from the late fifteenth to the eighteenth centuries a period of chronic hostilities Nonetheless there were thousands of Muslims in Spain at that time ambassadors exiles merchants converts and travelers Their negotiating strategies and the necessary support they found on both shores of the Mediterranean prove that relations between Spaniards and Muslims were based on reasons of state and on a pragmatism that generated intense political and economic ties These increased enormously after the peace treaties that Spain signed with Muslim countries between 1767 and 1791 Non contrarii, ma diversi Autori

Vari, 2020-10-06T14:39:00+02:00 This book brings together a number of contributions that throw a new light on the history of Jewish communities in late medieval and early modern Italy 15th-18th centuries The different monographic approaches form a homogeneous interpretation of this history a collective and original reflection on the question of Jewish minority in a broader Christian society Both the Christian and the Jewish sides are taken into consideration and an important number of chapters consider concrete situations Jewish texts and authors very rarely studied in the research on Jewish-Christian relation Rosicrucian Enlightenment F.A. Yates, 2013-10-08 This is Volume IV of the selected works of Frances Yates In the early 17th century a new movement was proclaimed throughout Europe announcing the universal reform of religion science art and society The main proponents of this movement were the esoteric Rosicrucians Europe was a world in transition and Rosicrucianism was but the latest movement to capture the public imagination Concerned with spiritual illumination and intellectual knowledge the movement continued to have widespread influence long after it was supposedly over as can be traced in the works of Isaac Newton and Fraught with modern science and medicine The Rosicrucian Enlightenment has had a tremendous impact on our understanding of the western esoteric tradition The Recession and Beyond David

Bailey, Caroline Chapain, 2012-03-29 How has the recession impacted on firms people and places How have local and regional authorities responded This book aims to answer these questions by offering an overview of the impacts of the recession on people and places and how it has affected local authorities in the UK and other OECD countries The volume makes a fresh contribution to understanding local economic development and governance by providing a unique perspective and original data on the way local authorities have dealt with the recent economic shock across countries New Dynamics in Female

Migration and Integration Christiane Timmerman, Marco Martiniello, Andrea Rea, Johan Wets, 2015-04-10 This book explores the dynamic interplay between cross-national and cross-cultural patterns of female migration integration and social change by focusing on the specific case of Belgium It provides insight into the dynamic interplay between gender and migration and especially contributes to the knowledge of how migration changes gender relations in Belgium as well as in the regions of origin To this end an analytical model for conducting gender sensitive migration research is developed out of an initial theory driven conceptual model Employing a transversal approach the researchers reveal similarities and differences across national backgrounds disclosing the underlying more universal gender dynamics Planet Savers Kevin

Desmond, 2017-09-08 Protecting the planet is everyone's work But we all have our own heroes in whatever area we are working Planet Savers brings together the varied stories of the hundreds of movers and shakers that have spoken up throughout history and taken action to defend the world from pollution deforestation species loss and climate change From Theodore Roosevelt to Al Gore from Francis of Assisi to David Attenborough and from hundreds more men and women that you will know little if anything about Scientists artists business people priests lawyers poets politicians activists and more from every continent of the world Their work has enthused us about the natural world and warned us that we must do much more to preserve it The Indian woman who became the world's first environmental martyr the Baptist Reverend who asked What Would Jesus Drive the Quaker big game hunter who set up the first conservation organisation the Shakespearian actor who revolutionised organic gardening and the housewife whose campaign against toxic waste forced a President to act The book is a cornucopia of people who from time immemorial have put their careers reputations and lives on the line to protect our planet from its governing inhabitants the human race Today as thousands of species of animals and plants are faced with extinction thousands of years of indigenous knowledge is lost in the face of technological advance and we become more and more aware of the potential doomsday scenario of a warming world we need Planet Savers more than ever Our inspiration can be the 301 environmental lives portrayed in this book These people cared enough to do something about it Planet Savers is both a tribute and a catalyst a tribute to the people that loved the planet enough to want to act to save it and a catalyst for the people who will be inspired to act after reading it New Planet Savers are at work right now in rainforests and megacities in community centres and boardrooms at road protests and in courtrooms all over the world If this book has one great aim it is to inspire you the reader to join them It is a book that every home should own The Consequences of Mobility David

Cairns, Valentina Cuzzocrea, Daniel Briggs, Luísa Veloso, 2017-02-09 This book explores various forms of highly skilled mobility in the European Union assessing the potential for this movement to contribute to individual and societal development In doing so the authors illustrate some of the issues arising from the opening up of Europe's borders and exposing its education systems and labour markets to international competition While acknowledging the potentially positive aspects of mobility they also reveal many of the negative consequences arising from flaws in mobility governance and inequalities in access to opportunities arguing that when the management of mobility goes wrong we are left with a heightened level of precariousness and the reproduction of social inequality This discussion will be of interest to those working within Europe's mobility infrastructure as well as policymakers in the mobility field and students and scholars from across the social sciences

Consumer Chronicles David H. Walker, 2011 Since its 19th century beginnings the consumer revolution extending market forces into every area of social and private life has been perceived as a challenge to core elements in French culture such as traditional artisan crafts and small businesses serving local communities Cultural historians and sociologists have charted the increasing commercialisation of everyday life over the 20th century but few have paid systematic attention to the crucial testimony provided by the authors of narrative fiction This book rectifies this omission by means of close readings of a series of novels selected for their authentic portrayal of consumer behaviour and analysed in relation to their social cultural and historical contexts
