Family Therapy Skills and Techniques in Action Mark Rivett, Joanne Buchmüller, 2017-10-02 Please watch the following short video advertisement for the book featuring the Editors <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=N1ApHAQIMzQ>
Building a therapeutic relationship with multiple family members Enactment Reframing Using circular questions Externalising the problem Using family therapy skills in individual work Understanding and utilising systemic supervision
Family Therapy Skills and Techniques in Action will be an essential practical manual for a range of family therapy skills which can be used in family work by family practitioners from a variety of backgrounds counsellors support workers social workers psychologists generic therapists and nurses Musick, 1997 The National Agricultural Directory 2009, 2009 Don't Blame the Parents: Corrective Scripts and the Development of Problems in Families Rudi Dallos, 2019-10-07 This invaluable contribution to working with families whether as a family therapist clinician or parent offers insight into how problems for families and children arise and what can help Don't Blame the Parents explores the ubiquitous issue of blame and responsibility in families especially of parents feeling blamed for causing or exacerbating problems The book examines problems that we all encounter in family relationships whether with children's behaviour marital anxiety or not feeling like we are the effective parent that we intend to be Blame can restrict our ability as therapists clinicians and family members to explore family dynamics and responsibility for emerging problems in a constructive and progressive way It can prevent exploration of family dynamics and of finding workable options for long term positive change and better understanding the role of the family unit The book draws on attachment and systemic perspectives on family therapy to support the view that parents generally intend to repeat or correct positive childhood experiences while exploring why these intentions may become derailed Seminal and contemporary research as well as clinical cases feature all with an eye to fostering positive and responsible families Rudi Dallos offers us a thoughtful and helpful deconstruction of the crucial ethical and therapeutic differences between blame and responsibility in family life Drawing on his integration of trauma theory and attachment theory with systemic theory and practice he explores the vexed questions of causality context and intergenerational influences in the understanding and alleviation of distress in close relationships Arlene Vetere Professor of Family Therapy and Systemic Practice VID Specialized University Oslo Norway Alcohol Health and Research World, 1982
