On the back include the setting, characters, and a short summary.	Create a collage using words and pictures showing your favorite things. Show someone the collage and explain why you chose the words and pictures.	Pretend you are the teacher reading a book to the class. Read with expression. Make your voice like the character's voice. If you can, record it to share.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS CHOICE BOARD

Use this Choice Board to select English Language Arts prompts and activities.

Write a letter to a friend in your class telling him/her what you did today. Practice using your best cursive writing if you happen to have cursive.	Make a list of at least 10 adjectives that describe a book that you are reading. Write a short explanation for why you chose each adjective.	Have someone in your family tell you their favorite story. Have them ask you who, what, when, and where questions to see if you remember the details in their story.
Look through magazines for words starting with each letter of the alphabet. Try to find one word for each letter. Collage the words with glue and paper.	What is your favorite movie? Write your review of the movie and why you think people should watch it. Create a poster of your review.	Draw a picture of one of the scenes from a book you are reading. On the back, write a 3-sentence explanation of the scene.
Write a friendly letter to one of the characters in your book. Tell him or her what you liked about the story. Ask some questions that you are still wondering about. Remember to use proper friendly letter format!	Read any story. After reading, compare and contrast yourself to one of the characters from your book. Then, create a Venn diagram.	Read any picture book of your choice. After reading, create and write a new ending for the story. Add an illustration.
