SUMMER Comic Book Writing

You will need:

- Summer story brainstorming and comic pages
- Crayons, colored pencils, markers, etc.

Instructions:

1. Share this example with your child. We got in the car to go to the store as a family. After that we got in the car to go to the store. After a while, there was the whole to be everyone to get out! When we looked the car, when we looked, we thought that again. Then the car when it was time to go we got back in the car and drove home.
2. Ask your child if they can think of their own summer stories that have lots of details. Just like the example. Then ask your child what they know about the format of comic books (panels, speech bubbles, or sequential words, conversations, text, etc.).
3. Tell the child that they will be writing about their own summer stories. Some kids will be writing about their own summer. Some kids will be writing about their own summer. Some kids will be writing about their own summer.
4. Tell the children that first they need to come up with their own summer story. Then they need to write it out. Then they need to write it out. Then they need to write it out.
5. Once they have chosen one story, they can use the comic pages to write their story.
