Negewo, Yemataw Wondie, 2023-01-04 The Government of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia commissioned a national study to review the overall education system of Ethiopia in 2016 that resulted in the Education and Training Roadmap outlining the unwavering commitment towards transformative changes in the national education system Among the various areas identified in the Roadmap for further intervention and urgent policy shift was the dire need to differentiate the public universities which for ages have stagnated from disciplinary and mission redundancy and transform them to vibrant 21st century dynamic universities endowed with missions commensurate with the critical needs of the country Hearings United States. Congress. House, 1962 Afrasian Transformations, 2020-08-31 African Asian interactions contribute to the emergence of a decentred multi polar world in which different actors need to redefine themselves and their relations to each other Afrasian Transformations explores these changes to map out several arenas where these transformations have already produced startling results development politics South South cooperation cultural memory mobile lifeworlds and transcultural connectivity The contributions in this volume neither celebrate these shifting dynamics as felicitous proof of a new age of South South solidarity nor do they debunk them as yet another instance of burgeoning geopolitical hegemony Instead they seek to come to terms with the ambivalences contradictions and potential benefits entailed in these transformations that are also altering our understanding of trans area in an increasingly globalized world Contributors include Seifudein Adem Nafeesah Allen Jan Beek Tom De Bruyn Casper Hendrik Claassen Astrid Erll Hanna Getachew Amare John Njenga Karugia Guive Khan Mohammad Vinay Lal Pavan Kumar Malreddy Jamie Monson Diderot Nguempjouw Satwinder S Rehal Ute R schenthaler Alexandra Samokhvalova Darryl C Thomas and Sophia Thubauville Higher Education in Development Kate Ashcroft, Philip Rayner, 2011-09-01 This book will interest readers learning about or developing strategies for improving higher education systems and institutions in developing countries It provides an insight into sub Saharan African higher education systems and sets out the ways that they are developing and changing It explores the dilemmas inherent in a context of scarce resources with increasing and urgent demands for a more professionalized workforce and expert services It examines the factors inhibiting development such as HIV AIDS gender issues historical conflicts cultural attitudes inimical to innovation the challenges created by poor infrastructure and the history of colonialism and authoritarianism and their legacy of centralized control and lack of autonomy and democracy The book explores lessons from research into sub Saharan African higher education that may be applied to other contexts The authors have lived and worked in sub Saharan Africa and the book draws on the authors personal experience of higher education in Zambia Ethiopia The Yemen and their links in Mozambique and South Africa as well as extensive senior management experience and at the highest level within sub Saharan higher education systems It uses actual examples and a reflective case study approach to describe reforms and from these develops ideas as to how to improve the effectiveness of higher education as a means to fight poverty The book explores lessons from research into sub Saharan African higher education that may be applied to other contexts The authors have lived and worked in sub Saharan Africa and the book draws on their personal experience of higher education in Zambia Ethiopia The Yemen and their links in Mozambique and South Africa The authors also use their extensive management experience at the highest level within sub Saharan higher education systems The book includes actual examples and a reflective case study approach to describe reforms and from these develops ideas as to how to improve the effectiveness of higher education as a means to fight poverty
