Mirage Of Afrofeminism English Edition:

Mirage of Afro-Feminism Ishaya Albert, 2015-06-26 Mirage of Afro feminism explores a very important and recurrent theme in human societies the need to accord women and children their rightful places in society. In exploring the subject the author lays a subtle but convincing development and precision of plots with the characters of Mrs Lawal Dr Hafsat Edna Shay Corporal Talachi Dr Asunki and Katherine as key players with a cloud of other characters. The whole plot is relayed through an exciting and captivating style of narrative in the unique tone of the author which in turn makes every scenario enjoyable replayable and exciting with every sense of accuracy and exactness without any space for makeup or aborted suspense. The plot depicted through the character of Mrs Lawal expresses the needs for selfless service sacrifice love and care as values for positive social change. Dr Hafsat Through her the work vividly shows the plight of women in society with an emphasis on the lack of respect for women as a major constraint to effective emancipation. Also in her character the off track trends in womens rightssolidarity activism and feminism alongside their overbearing and counterproductive tendencies against genuine womens liberation and empowerment are highlighted. Edna Shay Through her the plot hints at the difference between the developed and developing worlds which is attitude characterized by respect for oneself and others on the one hand and lack of respect for humanity on the other hand. Talachi Through him the plot gives a picture of to what extent a kind fellow can go to support the human cause and to help others live a better life especially under the burden of undoing ones mistakes against humanity and to have a free conscience by personal conviction. Dr Asunki In this character a seeker of better ways to live and an accomplished personality who is chiefly concerned with seeing people especially women get accomplished to the fullest of their potentials is depicted. Katherine In her character a dormant deputy is seen who on coming to the stage turns into a game changer in a dwindling and obscured womens forum. Her mien experience and temperament are the forces that propel Dr Hafsat to take a resolute step to solve the puzzle that mitigates her efforts in womens rights and feminist pursuits. Mirage of Afro feminism is a work that speaks against global indifference and irresoluteness in the plight of women and children alongside some other people globally especially people trapped in conflict zones across the globe in a loud and clear tone. The book also breaks the socioreligious silence about the status quo of women.

Dear Madame de Beauvoir Daniel Zanou, 2023-12-19 Dear Madame de Beauvoir is a response to the book The Second Sex by the French philosopher Simone de Beauvoir. The book tackles existentialist feminism exposes the flaws in radical feminism and provides essential tips for our daughters to navigate safely the world created by men. The book introduces essentialist feminism a new school of thought within the feminism movement that sees man and woman as inseparable entities living in an obligatory symbiotic relationship. They are joint heirs and co equal in managing the material universe. They have never been in war as anarchist feminists depict it but in lovely relationships that sometimes do not end well. Man and woman complete and complement each other they can switch tasks in the house as they please but roles cannot be abolished because we cannot have two captains in one boat The two individuals live as pilot and co pilot and cannot leave the house simultaneously because the ship cannot be left unattended Essentialist feminism promotes function based roles in the marital home to address the nascent confusion in marriage instead of the gender based roles we traditionally practice Women's Property Rights Under CEDAW José E.
