relationship was close and complicated Writes Buckley They were not with respect to every other set of loving wonderful parents in the world your typical mom and dad As Buckley tells the story of their final year together he takes readers on a surprisingly entertaining tour through hospitals funeral homes and memorial services capturing the heartbreaking and disorienting feeling of becoming a fifty five year old orphan Buckley maintains his sense of humor by recalling the words of Oscar Wilde To lose one parent may be regarded as a misfortune To lose both looks like carelessness Christopher Buckley offers consolation wit and warmth to those coping with the death of a parent while telling a unique personal story of life with legends
