Namibia Grade History Question Papers 2013:

Namibia and Germany: Negotiating the Past Reinhard Kossler, 2015-08-12 100 years since the end of German colonial rule in Namibia the relationship between the former colonial power and the Namibian communities who were affected by its brutal colonial policies remains problematic and interpretations of the past are still contested This book examines the ongoing debates conflicts and confrontations over the past It scrutinises the consequences of German colonial rule its impact on the descendants of victims of the 1904-08 genocide Germany's historical responsibility and ways in which post colonial reconciliation might be achieved Comparative Perspectives on School Textbooks Dobrochna Hildebrandt-Wypych, Alexander W. Wiseman, 2021-04-22 This book examines the discourses on nation building civic identity minorities and the formation of religious identities in school textbooks worldwide It offers up to date practical and scholarly information on qualitative and mixed method textbook analysis as well as the broader context of critical comparative textbook and curriculum analyses in and across selected countries The volume offers unique and empirical research on how internal educational policies and ideological goals of dominant social political and economic groups affect textbook production and the curricular aims in different educational systems worldwide Chapters address the role of school textbooks in developing nationhood the creation of citizenship through school textbooks the complexity of gender in normative discourses and the intersection of religion and culture in school textbooks A History of Southern Africa Alois S. Mlambo, Neil Parsons, 2018-09-08 From early human civilisation to today this book illuminates the history of southern Africa Interweaving social cultural and political history archaeology anthropology and environmentalism Neil Parsons and Alois Mlambo provide an engaging account of the region's varied past Placing African voices and agency at centre stage rather than approaching the subject through a colonial lens A History of Southern Africa provides an engrossing narrative of the region This textbook is ideal for both undergraduate and postgraduate students of History and African Studies and will provide an essential grounding for those taking courses in the history of southern Africa Its lively and accessible approach will appeal to anyone with an interest in global history Writing Namibia Sarala Krishnamurthy, Nelson Mlambo, Helen Vale, 2022-06-01 A rich collection of captivating and remarkable chapters Writing Namibia Coming of Age presents research of senior academics as well as emerging scholars from Namibia The book includes wide ranging topics in literature written in English and other Namibian languages such as German Afrikaans and Oshiwambo Almost thirty years after independence Namibia literature has come of age with new writers experimenting with different genres and varied aspects of literature As an aesthetic object and social phenomenon Namibian literature still fulfils the function of social conscience and as new writers emerge there is ample demonstration that pluri vocal as they are Namibian literary texts relate in a complex manner to the socio historical trends shaping the country The Namibian literary critical tradition continues to paint some versions of Namibia and what we find in this new and highly welcome volume is a canvas of rich voices and perspectives that demonstrate an intricate diversity in terms of culture language and themes Exploring Economic Reintegration in Namibia. Individual Trajectories of PLAN Ex-Fighters and SWAPO Exiles, 1989-2018 Tichaona Mazarire, 2023-01-18

Exploring Economic Reintegration in Namibia Individual Trajectories of PLAN Ex Fighters and SWAPO Exiles 1989 2018 draws from life histories to present constraints and possibilities that have shaped former SWAPO exiles economic reintegration in post colonial Namibia from 1989 through 2018 The book advances three arguments each of which pushes beyond existing scholarship on Namibia and or economic reintegration broadly Collectively these arguments challenge dominant narratives that have generalized former SWAPO exiles economic reintegration experiences highlighting that there is no single narrative that can describe their unique life stories of reintegration in the post colony General Labour History of Africa Stefano Bellucci, Andreas Eckert, 2019 The first comprehensive and authoritative history of work and labour in Africa a key text for all working on African Studies and Labour History worldwide Photography and History in Colonial Southern Africa Lorena Rizzo, 2019-09-16 This book studies the relationship between photography and history in colonial Southern Africa using a series of encounters with Southern African photographic archives to reflect on photography as a distinct historical form Through use of private and public archives images produced by African itinerant photographers white settlers and colonial state institutions this book explores the relationship between photography and history in colonial Southern Africa Late nineteenth century Cape Colonial prison albums police photographs from German Southwest Africa African studio portraits identity documents travel permits and passports from the 1920s and 1930s visual studies of whiteness and blackness authored by settler photographers South African dompas photographs from the 1950s and 1960s and aerial photography from the Eastern Cape in the mid twentieth century are examined to highlight the ways in which photographic images cut across conventional institutional boundaries and complicate rigid distinctions between the private and the public the political and the aesthetic the colonial and the vernacular or the subject and the object Photography and History in Colonial Southern Africa argues that rather than understanding photographs as a means of preserving and recreating the past in the present we can value them for how they evoke at once the need for and the limits of historical reconstruction This book will be of interest to students and scholars of colonial history photographic history visual media and African studies Home economics Sacha Hepburn, 2022-08-16 Domestic service has long been one of the largest forms of urban employment across southern Africa Home economics provides the first comprehensive history of this essential sector in the decades following independence and the end of apartheid Focusing on Lusaka and drawing wider comparisons the book traces how Black workers and employers adapted existing models of domestic service as part of broader responses to changing gendered employment patterns economic decline and endemic poverty It reveals how kin based domestic service gradually displaced wage labour and how women and girl workers came to dominate kin based and waged domestic service with profound consequences for labour regulation and worker organising Theoretically innovative and empirically rich the book provides essential insights into debates about gender work and urban economies that are critical to understanding southern Africa's post colonial and post apartheid history

Yearbook of International Organizations 2013-2014 (Volumes 1a-1b) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2013-06-21 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events

The Decline of Marriage in Namibia Prof. Dr. Julia Pauli, 2019-01-23 In Southern Africa marriage used to be widespread and common However over the past decades marriage rates have declined significantly Julia Pauli explores the meaning of marriage when only few marry Although marriage rates have dropped sharply the value of weddings and marriages has not To marry has become an indicator of upper class status that less affluent people aspire to Using the appropriation of marriage by a rural Namibian elite as a case study the book tells the entwined stories of class formation and marriage decline in post apartheid Namibia

States-in-Waiting Lydia Walker, 2024-05-16 After the Second World War national self determination became a recognized international norm yet it only extended to former colonies Groups within postcolonial states that made alternative sovereign claims were disregarded or actively suppressed Showcasing their contested histories Lydia Walker offers a powerful counternarrative of global decolonization highlighting little known regions marginalized individuals and their hidden or lost archives She depicts the personal connections that linked disparate nationalist struggles across the globe through advocacy networks demonstrating that these advocates had their own agendas and allegiances which she argues could undermine the autonomy of the claimants they supported By foregrounding particular nationalist movements in South Asia and Southern Africa and their transnational advocacy networks States in Waiting illuminates the un endings of decolonization the unfinished and improvised ways that the state centric international system replaced empire which left certain claims of sovereignty perpetually awaiting recognition This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion Jo Fraser-Pearce, James W. Fraser, 2023-09-21 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion provides the first truly global scan of contemporary issues and debates around the world regarding the relationship s between the state schools and religion Organized around specific contested issues from whether or not mindfulness should be practised in schools to appropriate and inappropriate religious attire in schools to long term battles about evolution sexuality and race to public funding Fraser Pearce and Fraser carefully curate chapters by leading experts exploring these matters and others in a diverse range of national settings The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion offers a refreshingly new international perspective

The International Business Environment Leslie Hamilton, Philip Webster, 2015 Explores the process of globalization and the impact this has on international business organizations The text presents a framework to analyse the economic political legal financial technological socio cultural and ecological environments thereby outlining the factors which affect the everyday business of organizations

the concept of the new African middle class with new theoretical and empirical insights into the changing lives in Sub Saharan Africa Diverse middle classes are on the rise but models of class based on experiences from other regions of the world cannot be easily transferred to the African continent Empirical contributions drawn from a diverse range of contexts address both African histories of class formation and the political roles of the continent s middle classes and also examine the important interdependencies that cut across inter generational urban rural and class divides This thought provoking book argues emphatically for a revision of common notions of the middle class and for the inclusion of insights from the South into the global debate on class Middle Classes in Africa will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines as well as NGOs and policy makers with an interest in African societies Jubuntu Larissa Denk,2023-02-13 This study investigates the nexus between giving belonging and Jewishness in South Africa Charitable interactions are as much manifestations of inequalities as an expression of the giving individual s desire to alleviate them Structuring aspects like class race economics and post apartheid politics are at the basis of this study At the same time though it is individual agency reproducing inequalities and making sense of the ambiguity of the charitable interaction In the context of the Jewish community in South Africa this analysis shows how the community s organisations practices and concepts are connected to charitable giving The author carved out three dimensions which are entangled reinforced or at times contradict each other Belonging diaspora and charitable giving Along with shared values and practices it relates to volunteering or charitable giving connects one individual to a group while possibly excluding another from it Expressing belonging to the Jewish collective as a diaspora community relates individuals or collectives to the triadic relationship between local diaspora group host society and homeland and other local communities of the same diaspora Warfare and Tracking in Africa, 1952-1990 Timothy J Stapleton,2015-10-06 During the decolonization wars in East and Southern Africa tracking became increasingly valuable as a military tactic Drawing on archival research and interviews Stapleton presents a comparative study of the role of tracking in insurgency and counter insurgency across Kenya Zimbabwe and Namibia Multilingual Higher Education Christa van der Walt,2013-04-12 The general perception that a good command of English is enough to gain access and to be successful in higher education hides the complexity of learning and teaching in multilingual environments and this book shows that all higher education environments are multilingual to some extent Strategies like translation interpreting and switching from one language to another not only support learning but also build competence for multilingual professional environments Whether institutions focus on widening access to minoritised communities or whether they want to attract more international students the book argues that a multilingual pedagogy is needed to improve student access and success Building on work by Nancy Hornberger Colin Baker and Ofelia Garc a the book extends strategies and techniques from bilingual education at school level to multilingual higher education Academic Leadership Marmar Mukhopadhyay,2023-03-28 This book provides contemporary knowledge on school effectiveness and proposes strategic interventions for enhancing it It focuses on improving academic leadership for enhancing the effectiveness of schools and discusses how national education policies are helpful in providing a vision towards improving school effectiveness It highlights the role of teachers as academic leaders in the implementation of policy recommendations at school and classroom levels It offers methods and mechanisms for academic leaders to measure the learning of students for school assessment The author also discusses how academic leadership involves creating a vision and mission based on science and research data for the organisation inspiring innovation and creative ideas developing teamwork and a safe environment for staff to express their views While providing an understanding of school as an organization the volume outlines its management functions such as processes and quality of planning management of curriculum learner evaluation institutional networks and human resource management among others The volume is a guidebook for training and capacity building for school level practitioners and leaders in education management Embedded with real life cases and episodes this volume will be of interest to teachers students and practitioners of education management and education management It will also be useful for academicians educationalists practitioners management professionals educational leaders and policymakers

Anthropology Raymond Scupin, Christopher R. DeCorse, 2019-12-20 Integrating historical biological archaeological and applied approaches with ethnographic data from around the world Anthropology A Global Perspective is founded on four essential themes the diversity of human societies the similarities that tie all humans together the interconnections between the sciences and humanities and a new theme addressing psychological essentialism Repetition, Recurrence, Returns Joan Ramon Resina, Christoph Wulf, 2019-04-29 Repetition is constitutive of human life Both the species and the individual develop through repetition Unlike simple recall repetition is permeated by the past and the present and is oriented toward the future Repetition of central actions and events plays an important role in the lives of individuals and the life of society It helps to create meaning and memory Because repetition is a central aspect of human life it plays a role in all social and cultural spheres It is important for several branches of the humanities and social studies This book presents studies of an array of repetitive phenomena and to show that repetition analysis is opening up a new field of study within single disciplines and interdisciplinary research Recommended for scholars of literature music culture and communication
